

MARCH /APRIL 2017

COPYRIGHT, FLEETWOOD POA, 2017

From the President.....

Neighbors,

Thank you to all who managed to attend the Annual Meeting of Fleetwood Property Owners Association, and to those who managed to send in their proxy vote. The meeting took place at BridgePoint Bible Church on February 7th and I am pleased to announce that we elected homeowners into the two open positions on the Board. Sharon Swanson Evans stood for an additional term and was duly elected. The position left open following the departure of Charles Sandel was open for candidates. Donna Haines, a homeowner in the South side of Fleetwood agreed to stand as a candidate and was also duly elected. The Board of 5, myself, Brian Hefty, Sally Craig, Sharon Swanson Evans and Donna Haines will meet on Wednesday 8th March for our monthly meeting and agree what positions we will all fill for the following year. Details regarding positions, areas of responsibility and contact details will be updated on the Fleetwood POA website (www.fleetwoodPOA.com) and on the NextDoor website / app. Thank you Sharon for committing to an additional term and welcome to the team Donna.

I hope that everyone is ready for Cook-off and Rodeo season, and most importantly for some warmer weather to come our way. However, with that comes the pesky mosquitos, so please take some time to check that you don't have any standing water on your property. If we can remove their breeding grounds then perhaps we can reduce their numbers this spring / summer.

Sincerely,
Elaine Dyson
Fleetwood Board President

Israel's Knesset (parliament) established Yom HaShoah, also known as Holocaust Remembrance Day. This Jewish holiday began as a commemoration of the heroic Warsaw Ghetto uprising of 1943, and is today, at the same time, the Holocaust Memorial Day in remembrance of the six million Jews who perished in the Holocaust.

This year, tax day falls on April 18, 2017. That's the deadline for filing taxes on income earned in 2016. Usually, April 15 is the day taxes are due. But in 2017, that falls on a Saturday. On Monday April 17th, the District of Columbia celebrates Emancipation Day / Patriots day. That affects taxes the same way federal holidays do. Emancipation Day is normally April 16, but that's a Sunday. Therefore, the tax deadline is pushed out to the following Tuesday, April 18.

Emancipation Day Celebrated "Juneteenth" in Texas June 19th, 2017

Emancipation Day is a holiday in Washington DC to mark the anniversary of the signing of the Compensated Emancipation Act, which president Abraham Lincoln signed on April 16, 1862. It is annually held on April 16. This year, Emancipation is moved to Monday, April 17th, 2017.

Issued by Abraham Lincoln on January 1, 1863, the Emancipation Proclamation declared "all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free." Although the Emancipation Proclamation did not end slavery, it did change the basic character of the Civil War. Instead of waging a war to restore the old Union as it was before 1861, the North was now fighting to create a new Union without slavery..

In Texas, Emancipation Day is celebrated on June 19. It commemorates the announcement in Texas of the abolition of slavery made on that day in 1865. It is commonly known as Juneteenth. Since the late 20th century, this date has gained recognition beyond Texas, and has been proposed for a National Emancipation Day.
