Terms and Conditions

It is the policy of M & G Truck Brokerage to act as a transportation broker in all business for which we provide service. Our credit terms allow for payment within 30 days net of receipt of the original bills of lading and pertinent documentation. Interest of 1.5% per month or 18% annually will be charged to any balance not paid within terms. Collection fees will also apply in the event of non-payment of customer. Should payment not be received by M & G Truck Brokerage within this time period, Texas Civil Remedies and Practice Code Chapter 38 allows for specific action to be taken in order to collect balances due. All issues, disputes, mediation or arbitration between M & G Truck Brokerage and its customers shall be conducted in Hidalgo County, Texas.

Furthermore, it should be noted that Section 217(b) of the Interstate Commerce act (49 U.S.C.317(b)) states that payment of freight charges may not be postponed due to alleged loss or damage. Should a claim be at issue, these charges should be paid in full and a claim form be filed with the carrier to insure proper and timely notification.

I Acknowledge and accept the above referenced terms and conditions:
