CHRISM MASS

The Chrism Mass, which takes place during Holy Week every year, will be held at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, March 27 at Epiphany Cathedral, 350 Tampa Ave. W., in Venice. During this Mass, the faithful of the Diocese join the Priests, Deacons and Bishop Frank J. Dewane for the blessing of the Holy Oils which are used in the administration of the Sacraments at each parish throughout the year. Priests and Deacons celebrating 25 and 50 years of Ordination are recognized at this Mass. All are encouraged to attend in support of our clergy and to participate in this important Holy Week celebration.

REGULATIONS ON FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

FASTING: To be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 years (inclusive). On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection (USCCB).

ABSTINENCE: Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all Fridays during Lent.

FASTING, ALMSGIVING AND PRAYER are the three traditional disciplines of Lent. The faithful and catechumens should undertake these practices seriously in a spirit of penance and of preparation for baptism or of renewal of baptism at Easter.

NOTE: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self denial that are suitable to their condition.

Catherine of Siena: Saint, Mystic, Doctor of the Church

Have you ever wanted to eavesdrop on a conversation that was all about you?

Join us on March 24, 2018 from 10:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

St. Katharine Drexel Main Church

St. Catherine of Siena is a saint for our time. She set her eyes on Christ and with humility, obedience, and perseverance she nurtured others to do the same. Catherine is as relevant today as she was in the 14th century. Whether man or woman, when we enter into Catherine's dialogue with God the Father, we are certain their conversation is meant entirely for you and me, in our own day and time. Who would not want to listen in on this conversation! Well now you can!

Join us for a powerful encounter with our Lord and Savior. Listen to the healing words of God the Father, spoken to Catherine about His Son's Cross. Experience a deeper understanding of why we "kiss" the feet of the Jesus on the Cross. Their conversation will forever change how you gaze upon the Cross of Jesus, His Most Sacred Heart and His Kiss of Peace. Make plans for a day of spiritual refreshment. For more information please email Renee Marazon (renee@marazon.com).

The 2018 offertory envelopes are located in the rear of the church. If you requested envelopes, please pick yours up. If you would like to start using envelopes, please contact the Parish Office. Thank you!

EASTER EGG HUNT

In preparation for our annual Easter Morning Easter Egg Hunt, we are requesting donations of individually wrapped candies. Please place your donations in the basket in the Narthex or bring it them to the Parish Office. Thank you for making this a joyous event for our youngest parishioners!

RUMMAGE SALE

This year's Rummage Sale was again a huge success. Thank you to the Efferts for coordinating the sale and all the volunteers who worked so tirelessly with the set-up, at the sale and with the break-down; with cooking, "manning" the kitchen and counting the proceeds. It wouldn't happen without everyone's time and talent. We netted ~$15,500 from the sale and donated the unsold items to Immokolee and other charitable organizations here on the island.

EASTER FLOWERS

If you'd like to remember your loved ones, and help decorate our Altar with flowers this Easter, please complete a flower donation envelope which can be found in the Narthex. You can drop it in the collection basket or bring it to the Parish Office no later than March 23rd for inclusion in the Easter bulletin.

Following the request of the Holy Father, Bishop Frank J. Dewane asks that all parishes include special prayers for peace throughout the remainder of Lent, especially for the Church and people of South Sudan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

PRAYER FOR PEACE IN THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO AND SOUTH SUDAN

Heavenly Father, you tell of a time when the lion and lamb lie down together, and swords will be turned into plowshares, a time when all divisions will be healed.

Be with the people of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and South Sudan in their hour of suffering. May your Spirit of Love comfort them and kindle in their hearts a hope for true peace, mercy and reconciliation.

Be with those leaders who hold the future of these countries in their hands. Open their minds and hearts to your Spirit of Peace so that they may work to build societies that respect the rights of all.

Ever Living God, may our heartfelt prayer and fasting help bring peace and justice to the Democratic Republic of the Congo, South Sudan and to all the World. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Voy a grabar mi ley en sus corazones

18 de marzo de 2018 • Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma

Las reglas escritas en las piedras que le fueron dadas a Moisés son fáciles de recordar, pero no fácil de seguir. Hoy aprendemos que las reglas no están afuera de nosotros, sino que Dios las escribió en nuestros corazones. Dios dice "Yo seré su Dios y ellos serán mi pueblo". Ahora estamos unidos en una relación con Dios y no sólo estamos siguiendo las reglas de Dios. El modelo para una relación es Jesús. Jesús, aun cuando es el Hijo, fue perfecto por medio de su sufrimiento y se hizo el origen de la salvación para todos nosotros que estamos lejos de la perfección. Jesús describe esta relación como un grano de trigo, entero en sí mismo, que cae en las entrañas de la tierra y se abre para producir el trigo que sustenta la vida.

ESCRITO EN LA CARNE

Cuando las reglas están escritas en nuestros corazones, debemos mirar dentro para medirnos nosotros mismos, para descubrir lo que Dios espera de nosotros. No somos esclavos. Somos el pueblo de Dios. No somos forasteros o extranjeros. Somos el pueblo de Dios. Este tipo de relación, como una amistad de mejores amigos, un matrimonio, la de un padre o una madre con su hijo, requiere de un compromiso de todo corazón, una voluntad para poner la vida de los demás antes de la nuestra. Compartimos con Jesús esa relación, un profundo anhelo por Dios de que nuestras vidas tengan un significado más allá de su medida. Cada una de nuestra vida es más que una serie de experiencias, eventos, logros. Cada una de nuestra vida simboliza en nuestra carne la obra de Dios que vemos encarnada en la vida, muerte y resurrección de Jesús. Esta relación espera más de nosotros que reglas. Esta relación nos da más que reglas. Esta relación pide por nuestra vida a cambio de darnos la vida eterna y la salvación.

SAVED BY GOD'S LOVE

Because the people broke the old covenant, God promised a new covenant, not in the blood of oxen and other animals, but in the blood of the Son, Jesus Christ. This new covenant, foreseen from afar by Jeremiah and the prophets, was not to be engraved on stone, or written on paper, but carved on our hearts, so that we might know God intimately. Not by keeping many laws are we to be saved, but by the love of God, living and real in our hearts through the sacrifice of Christ.

Our Eucharist is the pledge of that indwelling of Christ, and of our response of praise and thanksgiving to God for the mercy, love, and kindness shown to us in forgiving our sins and cleansing our hearts of everything evil. God issues this invitation to intimacy by offering us the chance to have our sufferings transformed into the perfect love of the Savior, who first loved us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the next two weeks, as we hear of the interior anguish of Jesus, we are led to the Garden of Gethsemane, the scene of a night of suffering, failure, and loss. In Hebrew, the word means “olive press,” and it was an olive grove, although only a few trees remain. Olives can't be eaten off the trees, they need to be cured—knocked from the trees at harvest time, scooped into a stone basin, and cracked open by a heavy millstone. The crushing stone weight was itself called a “gethsemane,” and once it was lowered onto the olives, oil from the fruit and the inner stone would drip into a groove and flow into jars. The night before his death, Jesus experienced such anguish that scripture says his own blood perspired from him, an image no one who understands olive oil production could miss.

Today, the Mount of Olives is within the city of Jerusalem and the site of the Church of All Nations, also known as the Basilica of the Agony. It was built in 1924, funded by Catholics in twelve different countries. An open-air altar on the grounds is used by Anglicans on Holy Thursday every year. Nearby is the Russian Church of Mary Magdalene, built by the czar in 1888, its magnificent golden domes a distinctive landmark. There is also another tiny Catholic Church, called Dominus Flevit, or “The Cry of the Lord,” built in a teardrop shape in the mid-1950s. For centuries, the Franciscan order has had the care of the shrines of the Holy Land, and our Good Friday collection helps sustain these precious sites.
