Non-competing Pipe Bands will be required to play at the Opening Ceremony (massed bands) on one or both days, depending on the travel assistance requested, as well as a minimum of one but possibly two 15-20 minute performances on Sunday. Depending on the number of Competitive Band entries, Non-Competing bands may also be asked to perform a 15-20 minute performance in the band performance area during Saturday afternoon.

For each day they are participating, every musician will receive one free entry. In addition, for each day they are participating each band will receive a one-day on-site parking pass for each 3 participants on their roster. (Free off-site parking with shuttle service is also available, and highly encouraged due to limited on-site parking.) Additional discounted adult tickets may be pre-purchased at $5 per day (children under 12 are free), only in advance via this form

>> Please provide a roster of all participating band members with your application.

Registrations sent by mail must be postmarked by 15 business days prior to the first day of the Games to be eligible for travel assistance.

Travel assistance will be offered to the first 5 competitive or non-competitive bands (fully rostered) registering. For travel assistance purposes, a band is defined as a minimum of 8 musicians, consisting of 5 pipers and 3 drummers (any discipline).

The amount of travel assistance is based on travel distance from the business address of the band to the Daly Mansion at the following rates:

- 25-150 miles $250 for 1 day / $400 for 2 days
- 151-300 miles $500 for 1 day / $800 for 2 days
- 301+ miles $750 for 1 day / $1250 for 2 days

Bands requesting travel assistance for both days will be excused at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday.

Please feel free to contact me directly by email or phone at rob.lynn.93@gmail.com or 406-493-9393.
