

JOSE VENTURA

Company Choreographer & Guest Teacher

Jose is an alumni from Thousand Oaks High School, where he started dancing his freshman year. He was the President for the Co-Ed and All Male Team as a senior, where he competed and received several awards including West Coast Elite Top 11 Soloists.

After high school Jose continued to dance and has worked for Six Flags Fright Fest as a performer. He has trained with award winning, Los Angeles based dance crew, 3-23 Area Kidz, The D-Main Army, and The Fraction, where he expanded his knowledge as a dancer and a teacher in hip hop.

Jose coached the All Male Dance Team at Thousand Oaks High School for 5 years. He coached the

All Male Team to earn various awards including multiple regional titles, as well as the WCE National Title, and much more. Jose was also a coach and choreographer for the Aspire Dance Company last year, and he helped the team win prestigious regional and national awards.

Jose is excited to continue to work with Hip Hop Crew this year as a guest choreographer, and always looks forward to seeing the Aspire dancers step forward and grow along the way.
