2015 Glass Show

This was the best glass show since Katrina! Thanks to all the members that donated their time to make the show a success! There over 400 people that attended the show and we make a profit of $1611.28! All of the dealers, except two who will be retiring, have agreed to come back next year. Also Donna Terrio's new ideas were a huge hit. People loved receiving the free piece of glass and looking for the doll. Thanks to Kent Washburn, who donated glass, we are covered for day 1 next year! Thanks again to everyone that make the show great!

The parade of prize winners are:

Candlewick server: David Gibbons, Viking Console: Renita Allen, Fenton vase: John Kehm, Lamps: Glenn Busby, Fenton Basket: Sybil Boudreaux, Crackled bowl: Diana Hansen

Show 'n Tell:

Anything to do with graduation.

The library needs your book donations for the book auction in November. Beside Depression glass books, we will also take books on home décor and recipes.

Speaking of books! Do you have your Adventures of Amber Madrid booklet yet? Charlotte and her husband have covered the cost of the printing and will be donating the profit to the club. If you haven't gotten your booklet yet the cost is $5.

The club needs you...to run for an office!

It's that time of year again! At the May meeting the slate of officers will be announced. If you are interested in any of the executive board positions please contact Vicki Hale.

Monthly Program

Note: Sorry there are no pictures this month. We were foiled by technology!

The April program showcased different Depression glass patterns in yellow. Lee Vinson presented Princess. She picked this pattern because it reminded her of the quintessential Depression glass pattern. Gloria Broadbent presented Cameo. Just a few basic pieces were made in yellow. Gloria also presented Primo, also called Paneled Astor. This pattern was only made in 1932 and is difficult to find. Bonnie Theard presented Lorain. Bonnie liked this pattern because of the square plates.

Thanks to all that presented as it was a wonderful program!

Show 'n Tell

The show 'n tell this month was the best buy from the glass show. Some highlights of the evening were Glenn Plauche's Duncan Miller Canterbury bowl, Donna Terrio's Dogwood pitcher, Jane Stacey's Heisey Madonna statue, Brenda Reilly's American Sweetheart Monax with gold rim, and Betty Kehm's Doric and Pansy tumbler. Thanks to all who participated.
