

Robert Eckles

Date of Hire: September 2010

Robert came to us with a varied background in regards to types of products sold. His most notable accomplishment in the sporting goods industry was the founding of Sierra Mountain Archery Pro Shop in Sacramento, California. His store was one of the nation's top dealers in high-end archery products. In the economic downturn, sales suffered and he had to close the business. Robert covers the dealer base in Northern California.
