

Ralph Raymond Miller

31 Mar.
1917 - 1963

Ralph Raymond Miller, age 45, Owosso, was killed shortly after midnight Sunday morning while repairing a large crane at the foundry of Buick Motor Company, Flint.

He was born August 27, 1917, in Pigeon to Gordon and Hazel Hamilton Miller.

Ralph Miller graduated from Pigeon high school, resided in Detroit for two years, in the Army Air Corps for five years and prisoner of war in Germany and has resided in Owosso since 1947.

He and Doris Finley were married June 26, 1949 in Angola, Indiana.

Survivors are his wife; one son, Gary, at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller, Pigeon; four sisters, Doris Miller, Pigeon, Mrs. Ervin Aschliman, Romeo, Mrs. Lyle Holik, Caro and Mrs. Paul Repshinska, Flint.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Tuesday from the Jennings-Lyons Chapel, Owosso. Dr. Don A. Morris officiated.

Burial was in Pigeon with services at 3 p.m.