

Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver Attends Surrey Board of Trade's 2019 New Year's Business Reception

23 January 2019 – Consul Arlene T. Magno (center) poses with Filipino-Canadian Maria Santos-Greaves, Owner and Clinic Manager of Surrey Hearing Care, Inc., and Normand Carriere, Business Development Manager and Industrial Audiometric Technician. Surrey Hearing Care, Inc. was one of the exhibitors at the 2019 New Year's Business Reception and Trade Show of the Surrey Board of Trade (SBOT), which was attended by close to 300 guests representing Surrey's business community. In her remarks, CEO Anita Huberman highlighted the role of the SBOT in bringing more businesses to Surrey, which she said will soon be the largest city in British Columbia. She acknowledged the presence of the Consulate at the event, as represented by Consul Magno and Economic Diplomacy Assistant Jeanie-vi Llonora.
