

Annis L. Brown

214

Annis L. Brown, 77, of Vivian, La. entered into rest on March 17, 1998, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Brown was born February 9, 1921, in Converse, La. She had lived Vivian for the past three years, and had previously been a resident of Oil City, La. She was a housewife and a member of the Vivian United Pentacostal Church.

Services were held at 2 p.m., Friday, March 20, 1998, at the Vivian United Pentacostal Church. The services were conducted by Rev. Ralph Helms, and assisted by Rev. Hugh Beene. Burial followed at Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Oil City, La.

Mrs. Brown is survived by one son, Dewell Brown of Vivian; two daughters, Billie Bennett of Jefferson, Tx. and Shirley Dykes of Bossier City, La.; her mother Annie Bell Austin of Shreveport, La.; four sisters, Lucy Clark of Blanchard, La., Myrtle Sherwood of Blanchard, La., Cathy Gordon of Shreveport, La. and Pearly Lilly of Shreveport, La. She is also survived by one brother, Sonny Austin of Grand Cane, La.; seven grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

The pallbearers were: Noah Bennett, Charlie Stringham, Mike Sistrunk, Stony Moore, Joey Platt, Monty Dykes and Nolan Austin.