

Local Climate Change Solutions

Grand Marais Public Library will host the Cook County Local Energy Project (CCLEP) on Saturday, October 12th, for their 3rd installment of "Local Climate Change Solutions" speaking series. The event is scheduled from 5 PM until 7PM. It is free and open to the general public.

The discussion at this meeting is intended to build upon the previous events held at the library. Included will be input from CCLEP, Ben Passer of Fresh Energy, Mysti Babineau of MN350, and Dr. Seth Moore of Grand Portage. This is intended to be a forum to discuss social justice effects and concerns relating to climate change as well as solutions that can be addressed by members of our community at the local level.

Interested parties may contact CCLEP at localenergy@boreal.org with questions and/or suggestions for community involvement in the event. The presenters ask those who would like to be a part of the solution be present.

This event is free and open to the general public. All members of and visitors to the community are invited to attend.

Celebrate Minnesota's North Shore at Sugarloaf Annual Open House

Celebrate Minnesota's majestic north shore and learn about its unique geology, climate and more. The Department of Natural Resources and the Sugarloaf North Shore Stewardship Association are holding an annual open house at the Sugarloaf Cove Nature Center on Saturday, Oct. 19, from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The open house includes a series of scheduled naturalist talks and there will be ongoing activities throughout the day including a scavenger hunt, scientific and natural area slideshow, children's water table and educational displays, games and self-guided walks. Programs will be offered highlighting the 50th anniversary of the Minnesota's scientific and natural areas, North Shore geology, and the conservation of the state's rare arctic plants.

Scheduled programs:

- 7 a.m. – Nature center opens, bird banding demonstration.
- 10 a.m. – Scientific and natural areas: 50 years of science and beauty.
- 11:30 a.m. – North Shore geology walk.
- 1 p.m. – Conservation of Minnesota's rare arctic relict plants – John Valez, University of Minnesota Duluth.

Advance registration is not required and people are welcome to spend all or part of the day. Warm, sturdy shoes or boots are recommended for the outdoor walks.

Sugarloaf Cove Nature Center is located at 9096 State Highway 61, Schroeder, Minn., 14 miles north of Tettegouche State Park. For more information, call Sugarloaf Cove Nature Center at 218-663-7679 or visit the Sugarloaf webpage.
