Jim & Linda MacGillivray

Talking with Rodney, our President, we would like to take a side trip on Sunday to the U S Air Force Museum for those that will still be around and are interested. Admission is free, it's close and we think there will be enough of us with vehicles to get us all over there without renting a bus. We would probably leave the Hotel at about 10:30 and return mid afternoon. There is a fee - if you are interested in going to the Theater inside and there is food available for lunch. Keep this side trip in mind if you will be around Sunday.
