HB 1 <http://www.lrc.ky.gov/record/18RS/HB1.htm>
Reps. David Meade (R), Joni Jenkins (D) & Jim DuPlessis (R)

Make changes to the child protective services system.

HCS1-Make changes to child protective services system and establish new study groups to look at issues related to the child protective services system and in determining when a court determines that a child is abused or neglected.

HFA1 (D. Meade)-Require the report from the CHFS, Office of the Ombudsman to also be sent to IJC on H&W.

HFA2 (J. Tipton)-Establish possible court appointed legal representation for a de facto custodian in child custody cases.

HFA3 (D. Meade)-Require the report from CHFS, Office of the Ombudsman to also be sent to IJC on H&W; specify that the required 10 day notice when CHFS is moving a child shall be given to foster parents and to child-caring facilities and child-placing agencies that have custody of a child; delete the change to the definition of "abused or neglected child" that related to the diagnosis of neonatal abstinence syndrome; establish clarifying language related to the diagnosis of neonatal abstinence syndrome as grounds for involuntary TPR; establish clarifying language related to when a putative father can be added as a party to an involuntary TPR case.

SCS1-Retain original provisions, except add clarifying language that foster parents and child-caring facilities and child-placing agencies will receive the 10 day notice of when a foster child is going to be moved to a new placement or reunified with the birth parents; establish new language to make it clear that children's advocacy centers may, in its sole discretion, provide testimony during an administrative hearing process; establish new language related to the fact that a child is diagnosed with neonatal abstinence syndrome at birth can be grounds for the courts to terminate parental rights; establish language related to allowing a court to appoint attorneys for birth parents in adoption proceedings if the court finds the birth parents to be indigent

SFA1 (W. Westerfield)-Provide that this Act may be known and cited as the Hadley-Cara Act.

SFA2 (W. Westerfield)-Retain original provisions except change statutory citation to establish possible court appointed legal representation for a de facto custodian in child custody cases.
