

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

Same request, different date. Checking my letter of October 2018 it is noted that a request was made for a VP of Planning/Programming. Here we are again, one year later, and I'm once again pleading for one of you to volunteer for this position. The board will be there to offer assistance. You will contract with speakers of interest to the guild for several lectures and workshops for 2021.

Thank you all for supporting your board members by your confidence in their decisions and your unanimous vote of approval for a second two-year term. We are diligent in our positions and are always thinking of new ways to make our meetings more interesting and one you wouldn't want to miss.

Now onto a lighter note. Fall fabrics have been on the shelves for several weeks and the holiday fabrics are starting to squeeze them out. There are so many ideas (not just for quilts) for your giftgiving. As soon as the quilt show is but a memory, my plans are to put metal to the pedal (on my sewing machine) and start some of those gifts. Key word here is start; don't know about finish.

So until next month*I've never seen a summer go by so fast in all my life.*

Lucy Van Pelt (friend of Charlie Brown)

Pat Henningfeld

Message from Your Board

The position of VP for Planning is Very Important, yet not that difficult to fulfill. Basically, you contact speakers for the following year and contract with them to speak during the times that we have no other activities scheduled. This means that you will have only a few dates to fill. Kime and Catherine already have a list of potential speakers to pass on. Without a volunteer to step up, we will have no workshops or fun speakers to share their love of fiber arts in 2011. It takes a year in advance to schedule these events. Someone please join our group!

Pride of the Prairie quilt guild selling raffle tickets Program: Victoria Findlay Wolfe: Creativity and Play: The What and Why's of Play. www.vfwquilts.com Victoria took us on journey through her life from a farm in 'nowhere' Minnesota to New York City. Her first child gets credit for turning her into a quilter. Painting for 12 hours a day was no longer feasible but sewing in pockets of time worked for her schedule. She challenged us to take an unfinished project, that you know you'll never finish, and re-imagine it – cut it up, reuse the blocks in a different way, for a different project, to something that inspires you. "It's just fabric, you have more!"

Lighthouse Legacies Quilt Show 2019 October 19 & 20

It's Showtime!!

Judy and Sharon thank each and every one of you who have worked hard for this show. The big day is coming soon. We hope that most of you will be able to attend one of the days; feel free to pitch in and help out if you see someone who looks "needy". Judy and Sharon will be in attendance during show hours to help out as needed or to answer questions.

Enjoy

Thank you for helping with the advertising for the upcoming show. I have seen yard signs out which is so helpful to boost attendance.

If you would like another yard sign please call me at (262) 627-9405 so that I can deliver one to you.

See you at the show, Dianna

Boutique Beauties!!!!

Here are just a few of the over 800 beautiful handmade items available at the Boutique this year! We have quilts and coasters, seasonal and sports themes, baby items and birdhouse, pin cushions and potholders and jewelry every quilter will love. There is something for everyone. Stop by and buy!

TAKE DOWN VOLUNTEERS

The good news is that we have some volunteers to help with Take Down. The bad news is that we don't have enough volunteers to take the show down quickly. If you don't want to hang around and wait for your show quilt, then please recruit a volunteer or two and have them sign up for the Take Down Committee. Thanks!

IMPORTANT

Check-in for Entries is October 16 from 12-4 at Resurrection Lutheran Church

Do Not Forget

your label with your name, name of the quilt and any other information hanging sleeve (3 inch for all entries other than household/fashion items) bring your quilt in a labeled pillowcase.

Reminder

If you didn't turn in your raffle tickets (sold or unsold) or money, please bring it to the show and give to Kristen or anyone else at the raffle ticket table.

If you are visiting the show and have some time to put on a pair of white gloves for a few minutes, please check in at the volunteer table and help out with assisting viewers as they enjoy the displayed quilts.
