Third Sunday of Advent
Gospel Jn 1:6-8, 19-28

“I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, make straight the way of the Lord”

Today we hear the story of the Baptism of Jesus from the beginning of St. John’s Gospel. John adds the information that “This happened in Bethany across from the Jordan where John was baptizing.” This situates the event on the east side of the Jordan River, not far from Herod’s castle/fortress at Machaerus, where John would soon be beheaded. John the Baptist did not urge people to challenge the authority of leaders of the Jews or call for the overthrow of the civil government, or an armed revolt. He called upon people to change their own hearts and to live according to God’s Commandment to love God and our neighbor as our self. This is how we “make straight the way of the Lord” to enter our hearts. For many this involves radical change. It involves a humble admission that what we are is God’s gift to us; what we become is our gift to God. Are you still struggling with a gift for Jesus. Here it is: “Make straight the way of the Lord” to enter your heart by a humble admission of who God is in our lives.
