There was a close race for the year-end trophy saddle in the CSRHA Rookie/CSRHA Green Reiner classes again this year, so you know the anticipation was high for everyone. The year-end trophy saddle was presented at the end of the day to high point earner in the Rookie Level 2 or Green Reiner class, whichever was higher. This year's coveted saddle was won by Champion Ryane Clark who showed Shiners Big Debut to the high point in the Rookie Level 2 class with a total of 36 points. Tough competitor, Karen Devenyns showed her nice gelding, Chicks N Checks, throughout the year in both classes and ended the year as the Reserve Champion with a total of 35 points in the Green Reiner class. Congratulations to both riders and their horses! What a close race! What an accomplishment for you both! This was a great way to wrap up the CSRHA's 2019 show season. Now, be sure to get the 2019 Awards Banquet on your calendars; this will be planned for spring 2020!

The CSRHA will be hosting a 2-day clinic with NRHA Professional, Shawn Florida on June 6-7, 2020 at the Agri-Park Arena in Sheridan, Wyoming. The clinic completely filling in just one day. Nancy also has a robust waiting list for riders. Please note that stalling and RV hook-ups will be available at the Sheridan County Fairgrounds. There is ample room for auditing if you are interested. This will be a wonderful opportunity to learn from one of NRHA's best professional trainers.

The Officers and Board of Directors attended a face-to-face meeting on October 12 in Casper, Wyoming. The 2020 show schedule, year-end trophy saddle, affiliate status, and elections were items discussed at this meeting. Stay tuned for more in our next newsletter!
