Motion was made to accept the balances report by Jim Stevens & 2nd Floyd Woolever; motion carried

OLD BUSINESS:

- Club Night Out March 17th:

- Went to Sumburger in Chillicothe; had a good turnout with 21 people attending. Service was excellent and we had the party room all to our selves.

- Club Dues:

- Parker is collecting club dues tonight, 17-members still have not renewed as of the start of the meeting tonight.

- 2018 Sponsors:

- Mr. Thomas reported that he has four sponsors lined up and is working on additional ones. The committed sponsors currently are: CrossTown Creamery, Richie's Deli, Dr. Guter and AutoMark.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Larry Robinson invited guest, Oscar Allan attended the meeting and discuss two car show events that he is planning in Pickaway County.
 - The first one is at the Pickaway County Fair Grounds on July 1st. The events of the day included a number of bands performing starting at 10:00am going until the fireworks at 10:00pm, food, alcohol (beer trucks) vendors would also be onsite and security and parking help will be provided by Mr. Allen. Cost of the Music venue is $20.00 the fireworks are free admission. Mr. Allen wanted to possibly have a car show from 1-4pm, charging the same $20.00 fee that would allow you to get info the music for free. If the club would attend and judge we would not have to pay. Car show parking would be in the grass lot off Stoutsville Pike.
 - The second car show would be at the VFW in South Bloomfield as a fund raiser for them on August 11th. This would include a DJ and food would be available from the VFW a basic car show with awards. The club would attend and help judge the show.

After Mr. Allen was excused, the club discussed these shows. Negative comments regarding the July 1st where construction/demolition, dust and dirt from the construction, parking on the unkept grass field that may be muddy if it rains. The club did favor the VFW show on August 11th. A motion was made by Steve Hedges not to attend the July 1st show as a club but to help with the August 11th show at the VFW; 1st by Mr. Higby and 2nd by Mr. Woolever, club voted and motion passed.

Flyers:

- Mr. Hedges handed out our cruise-in flyers to anyone that wanted to take as many as they wanted.

Members Health:

- A card was sent around for Bob Cullums, he has recovered from his stroke as much as he is going too. He now has a permanent residence at the Pickaway Manor in room 105.
- Patt Clifton is scheduled for a sinus surgery on Tuesday and has had a cold this week; keep her in your payers.

Club Night Out:

- April's club night out will be at Fred's Pizza in Waverly on April 21st. Meeting location has changed to Tractor Supply leaving at 4:00pm. Be early.
