Play On! Olympians: A Mythology Quest for grades K-8

This session will draw inspiration from Greek and Roman myths as well as the Percy Jackson book series by Rick Riordan. Students will work towards creating a performance using acting and possibly a song or two. Play On! students will learn about theatre terms, etiquette, story, character, and dialogue creation, and other theatre skills described in the National Arts Standards. Please note that memorization of lines is required. If students can read, it will be helpful, but not required as they can memorize the text in other ways. Costumes and props are provided for the final performance for family and friends to take place on November 20 at 5pm. Class meets Fridays from 1:00-3:15.

9 classes, September 18, 25, October 2, 9, 16, 23, November 6, 13, 20 (no class Oct 30)

*Executive Arts LLC, DBA Play On! is a locally owned and operated small business that encourages Denver-area school age children to explore their passion of the arts through individualized enrichment classes and summer camps. These highly collaborative performing arts programs use a hands-on creative approach that allows for a student to find their voice on the stage and beyond. We value the ability to grow along with our students and are delighted to continue to provide life-long learning opportunities in the community we have called home for more than 30 years. Play On! is a partner of the Denver Afterschool Alliance's Demonstration Project

The curriculum is designed to build skills in an age appropriate and fun manner. We believe that theatre, film, music, and dance can be created anywhere with the resources available. Students can begin while in pre-school and participate through eighth grade. There are numerous benefits a student receives when they participate in Play On! classes including confidence building skills, critical thinking, perseverance, positive body image and self-discipline. Students learn skills from the National Arts Standards, while participating in the process of bringing a story to the stage.
