Has worked on several of my dresses and did a great job, and we have been going to her for maybe a good 15 yrs, my mom took her closes to get cleaned like every other week growing up. She did a great job at altering my senior prom dress, and a dress i wore for a friends wedding. and also did great at taking in a few dress. and is also fixing my moms dress for my wedding because the stupid dress store ordered her a dress that was 2 sizes too big! And we cant wait to see it when its done!

Christina C. Walnut Creek, CA 4/14/2014 I have been going to Golie's for at least five year's now. They are very friendly, always remembering me even though I do not go on a frequent basis. They are reasonably priced and are always willing to expedite should I need it. I have also had alterations done there as well and have been happy with the results. Golie even fixed a sweater for me for free that I brought in to dry clean and when I was turning it in to them I noticed a tear in the sleeve.

Alyssa S. Concord, CA 10/9/2014 This place is really as good as it gets! They hemmed my pants with original hem, which is the only way to go, and they look perfect. They were also able to remove a stain from my silk shirt that I was certain would not come out. I am more than pleased. Thank you!

Mitra W. Pittsburg, CA 6/10/2010 I Bought my dream wedding dress form nordstom.com. I called the alterations department at the Walnut Creek store and explained what dress I had. They told me they knew what I was talking about and that they would be able to alter the dress. They said they would need one week to complete the work I was asking them to do. >> Three weeks before my wedding, I took my dress to the alterations department at the Walnut Creek Nordstrom for alterations only to be turned away. The lady told me she had no idea who would have told me they could alter that dress but what I was asking was impossible. >> I knew what I needed was intricate and somewhat complicated, but not impossible. She called in her boss to come and take a look and he said that they could do what I was asking but it would ruin the dress and look awful so they couldn't in good conscience agree to it. >> I was devastated but I trusted what they told me. I set out to find a dress even though I knew another dress just wouldn't do. I had my heart set! >> My mom had had some alterations done by Golie in the past so she suggested I take the dress to her and see what she could do. >> It took Golie 1.5 weeks to alter my dress. I picked it up today and my dress is amazing. She had to basically take the whole dress apart and put it back together and the dress looks flawless. >> I'm so happy I get to marry the man of my dreams in my dream dress. My wedding is in two days and I will post photos as soon as I have them. >> Thank you so much Golie for putting so much effort and attention to detail into my dress. You are truly talented.

Deneen F. Concord, CA 9/9/2012 Golie~ Thank you SO much for doing such a fantastic job with all my many alterations, and dry cleaning!! Your work is amazing and perfect EVERY time!!! You got magic fingers!! You definately have a customer for as long as your in business!!! Five stars is too low to rate...I want to give you a ten!!! See you soon! Thanks!

Renee I. Concord, CA 10/5/2012 I actually found Golie's from yelp and it was close by my house. I had gotten my wedding dress from a store and when I heard how much they wanted to charge to alter my dress I almost wanted to pass out. I understand it a lot of work but when all i needed done was to add a button in the back to hold the train up and taken up maybe an inch I thought the other price was high. I'm so glad I came to Golie's she quoted me way under and had my dress done in the time she quoted me for.

Karen B. Clayton, CA 6/28/2013 Golie is the best!! She has done my dry cleaning and alterations for about 10 years!! She is extremely knowledgeable about fabrics and what each garment needs. All of her alteration work for me has been PERFECT. She is a very sweet person, and her prices are very reasonable! Awesome business!!

T K. Discovery Bay, CA 4/10/2013 Golie had previously altered a bridesmaid dress for me and she did an excellent job so I brought my wedding dress to her to work her magic. Being a pregnant bride, I had to purchase a dress too many sizes too big which made for lots of adjustments. She practically had to take the whole top half apart and start from scratch, she did an absolutely amazing job. She made an 'okay' dress into my dream dress in just a few short weeks. She was also a pleasure to work with and might I add, affordable!

Steel J. Concord, CA 6/1/2009 I've been going to Golie's cleaners for a little over one year now, once a week I take 3 white shirts and 1 pair of black slacks, and she always delivers perfectly on time; returning my clothing to me on the wooden hangers I bring them in on. >> She also does excellent alterations with very quick turn-around times, I needed a shirt altered and she had it altered and dry-cleaned within 24 hours. >> Not only is the service great at Golies, but she's a great person to do business with and cares about her customers. Priceless, by far the best drycleaner in concord. (yes, I have tried most of them)

Marianne C. Oakland, CA 6/19/2010 Golie, is a very sweet person and is very good at alterations! When I was a bride's maid I took my dress here and she basically had to rebuild the whole top of the dress because it was strapless and I am a very small chested girl. She altered it in a beautiful way and I was able to keep it up! >> As I said I am very petite and when I got married I actually bought a white flower girl's dress and took it to Golie for her to tailor it in a way that would not only make it fit, but make it look like a woman's dress. She does a great job and has an excellent turn around time.

Todd R. 5/10/2011 I'm glad that I didn't let these reviews discourage me from trying this place out. I've been using them consistently for a couple of months to launder and press my dress shirts. The owner is a very pleasant woman who has been nothing but kind to me. I will continue to patronize her store because of the fine job they do at a reasonable price. They even repaired a button on a shirt and never uttered a word about it. Great service, folks.

Christine F. Concord, CA 4/19/2009 I've been shopping around for a good dry cleaner for years, and I found Golie to be the best. >> She's a wonderful seamstress and knows exactly how to alter something to fit me, so I end up looking my best. Golie is also fantastic at dry-cleaning my clothing. I recommend all my friends to her - she is amazing!

Kiki B. San Francisco, CA 5/11/2012 Golie is wonderful! Where do I start? I bought a bridesmaid dress on Nordstrom.com and it was about 4 inches too small. Too late to send it back and have a new one sent, the alterations dept at Walnut Creek Nordstrom brushed me off and looked at me like it was hopeless. My mom found Golie's Cleaners on yelp and urged me to go. I arrived at Golie's almost in tears, stressed out of my mind, 7 days before the wedding. Golie spoke to me with dignity, sweetness, and the reassurance and confidence that only your mom has down. Golie thought up 3 different solutions, settled on one, said 'this is where you stop thinking and you let me do the thinking". I immediately knew my dress and I were in the right hands. It's so easy to trust her and the end result proves to you why that is. 5 days later she called me, told me to come pick up the dress, and now I'm ready for my dear friend's wedding tomorrow. THANK YOU Golie! You definitely have a long time client in me!

Jeremy C. Concord, CA 9/8/2008 Golie is awesome....first time I dropped off some stuff when I came back 2 days later she remembered me.....she is like a member of the family who does your alterations for you....super nice lady and good work.

Victoria D. Concord, CA 9/19/2009 Golie is a sweet, kind-hearted lady who truly cares for her customers and treats them like they are a member of her family. Each time I come in she has a smile on her face and greets me with such energy. She asks questions like if I will be mostly wearing heels or flats with the pants I take in so the hemming will be done to accommodate that. I've been taking my alterations to her for over 2 years and have always had a fantastic, positive experience!

Casey D. Laguna Beach, CA 12/26/2006 LOVE LOVE LOVE Golie. She's such a sweet lady and she does great work. Her prices are reasonable and her staff is really nice.

tianyu c. San Francisco, CA 4/21/2008 Sometimes... I still come here to do some "special" drycleaning, all the way from Daly City. AKA whatever the other drycleaners here promise to fix but CAN'T, I bring to Golie because she's Amazing! She can take ANY stain out, lengthen or take off from pants, and they'll look great on you. She gives the best service I've ever received, and she's so patient. If I could mail my clothes to her to get them fixed, I'd do it!
