

El Santuario de Los Pobladores (The Sanctuary of the Settlers) is a committee of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish established for the purpose of creating a magnificent arts center, an "adobe" sanctuary. The labyrinth is to be constructed out of adobe, the ancient earthen building technique brought to the San Luis Valley by the early settlers to this part of Southern Colorado, and will be built next to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Conejos, the oldest parish in Colorado. Currently we are promoting an adobe campaign to build the wall which will surround the chapel. Anyone wanting to purchase an adobe in memory of a Loved One or someone special, please contact the church office at 719-376-5985. We will gladly accept any donations, and a contribution of $100 or more will entitle you to a memorial plaque inscribed with your information. We can also arrange for payment by installments. The following list of names have purchased and/or pledged their support of this undertaking, & will be updated as the project moves forward.

MASS READING REFLECTION

June 28, 2020

1st Reading 1 Kgs 19:16b, 19-21
[Call of Elisha]

This narrative tells about a call and the acceptance of the challenge to be a prophet. one who speaks in the name of God. If the prophet speaks up as he should, he knows that evil will resist him—even with a certain degree of violence. The action of throwing one's cloak over another possesses a symbolism similar to that of imposing hands on another. Here it stands for transmitting the charism of prophecy. This tradition is used to introduce a similar challenge of Jesus to his disciples in today's Gospel.

God's word to us in this narrative is clear: Accept the challenge to be a resolute Christian. Make the words of the Responsorial Psalm your own and praise God for your call to be a Christian.

2nd Reading Gal 5:1, 13-18
[Freedom in Christ]

Paul states that salvation comes through faith and not as a result of observing the Mosaic Law. It is a free gift of God. A Christian is free, but Paul qualifies Christian freedom. It is a freedom for love. One may ask: Do we need the ramifications of love and its Applications to life situation known as laws? Yes, because of our limited human condition.

If we were so mature in Christ that the compass of love would point out the direction unfalteringly, we could do without the laws that explain the ramifications of love in various human situations. Usually we are not. Laws are needed, but their observance should always be guided and motivated by love.

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE PARISH

Thirteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.
~Romans 8:28

THEME: Fit or Unfit for the Kingdom of God

In this book The Cost of Discipleship, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a minister of the Confessional Church in Germany during the Hitler regime, wrote: "When Christ calls a man, he bids him come and die." He knew by experience the truth of his statement. Arrested by the Gestapo, he inspired his guards in prison and concentration camps. He obtained permission to minister to his fellow prisoners, and his ability to comfort the anxious and depressed was amazing. A few days before the liberation of his concentration camp, he was executed. The Cost of Discipleship is a powerful attack on a "easy Christianity."

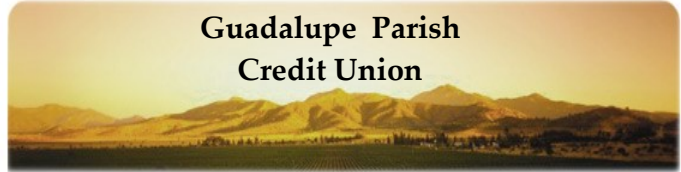

In reading today's Gospel, one is only amazed that Christians dare to take the easy way. The Founder of Christianity did not mean to be that way. True, not all Christians are called to give up everything in life, neither must all become martyrs, but a firm commitment to Christ and what he stands for in our own life situation must be a part of every Christian's life.

If God calls you to be a Christian, "he bids you to come and die" to your old self, your egotism and all evil, and become a new creature in Christ. There is no easy way for us to do this. Dying is after all a painful process.

St. Joseph Missal
