

GENEVIEVE WARNER

1912 - 1996

Genevieve Dubey Warner, 84 of Midland, died Tuesday, March 12, at Tendercare of Midland.

She was born on March 12, 1912 in Bay Port, daughter of the late Arthur and Louise (Buerker) Dubey. She had attended the Saginaw Business School, and in 1930 was named "Miss Bay Port."

In 1931, she married Stanley R. Warner. Mrs. Warner had managed many hotels in the Thumb Area. She lived in Saginaw until 1954, when she moved to Harbor Beach. She had lived in Midland, with her daughter and family since 1967, and took great joy in being part of her grandchildren's lives.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, David and Darlene Warner of Saginaw, their son David; her daughter, Jenny Snider of Midland and her children, James and Lisa Snider of Dewitt, Jill Marie Snider of Grayslake, Ill., Julie Anne Snider of Marquette, and their father, James E. Snider of Midland; brothers, Robert Dubey of Bay Port, James and Diane Dubey of Pigeon, a sister-in-law, Irene Dubey of Bay Port, a brother-in-law, James Hoeh of Sebawing, and many nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by two sisters, Agnes Hoeh and Margaret Jerome; and by one brother, John Dubey.

Mass of Christian Burial for Mrs. Warner was celebrated at 10 a.m., Friday, March 15, 1996, at Assumption B.V.M. Catholic Church in Midland. The Rev. Fr. Henry DuRussel officiated with burial in New Bay Port Cemetery.

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider the Assumption B.V.M. Catholic Church building fund, or the donor's favorite charity.
