

SASHA

Sacramento Area Speech and Hearing Association

Dear Colleagues,

Another summer is coming to a close which means it is time to start thinking about continuing education events! The SASHA board has been hard at work planning conferences in an effort to deliver intriguing, affordable professional development opportunities for professionals in the field of speech language pathology.

The SASHA website continues to be the best source of information regarding upcoming workshops, registration, and membership. We offer online registration, as well as payments via Venmo. We will continue to accept mail-in registration forms, as well as checks and purchase orders as forms of payment. Handouts for upcoming workshops will be emailed to attendees prior to the event. Our membership will also remain FREE! Just fill out the form on the website under the 'Membership' tab.

SASHA will be sponsoring the following conferences:

October 28, 2022: Amy Graham, MA, CCC-SLP, A Deeper Dive into Speech Sound Disorder Interventions, Virtual Live Event, via Zoom.

Spring Conference: TBA (Check back on the SASHA website under the 'Events' tab to find out more information as this time of year approaches.)
