ART GUILD WINTER PAINTING CLASS

Come to the Amana Art Guild and enjoy the pleasure of exploring and painting your own ideas.

Greetings Everyone! My name is Kathleen Frimml, and I am honored to be teaching/facilitating The Amana Arts Guild Winter Painting Class this year. I am a 20 year veteran Art Instructor. I specialize in acrylic painting, but I have worked with most media including drawing, ceramics, sculpture, paper mache, and many others. I have a B.A. from the University of Iowa in Fine Art, as well as a minor in K-12 Art Education. I have exhibited in several shows, and am a working artist selling my work at various shows and online.

I welcome you to paint away the 'winter blahs' with me, and add some much needed color to these barren months. I encourage you to bring any materials you would like, and I hope to make some beautiful art work together!

The class will meet five Tuesday afternoons from 1:00-3:00 p.m. beginning Tuesday, February 4th through March 3rd. Participants must bring their own supplies and a minimum of 5 participants is needed for this class. The cost of this class is $50. To register, please call the Art Guild at (319) 622-3678 or amanarts@southslope.net

THANK YOU FROM THE AMANA LIBRARY
Stuff the Stocking

All of us at the Amana Library would like to thank the community for their generous support of our "Stuff the Stocking" fundraiser in December. With your donations, we will continue to make improvements to the library. This year, donations will be used to purchase several new computers for our public lab. We appreciate the wonderful response we get every year. We have been able to purchase many items for the library with these funds including new furniture and books. We value your continued support and would love to see you at the library! Thanks again!

George Berger

We would also like to thank George Berger for continuing to come to the library every week to shelve books for us. We appreciate him for doing a job that can be quite time-consuming, but George is an expert so he does it very quickly! We always enjoy seeing his friendly face at the library. We are lucky that he continues to do this year after year for us! Thanks again, George!

forms regularly in an old-time duo with his wife as Marc & Brandi Janssen. The Janssens also lead the honky-tonk country band, The Slow Draws, and the bluegrass quartet, Goin' Up Caneywhile also providing the rhythm section for the 1920s-style jazz band, Dandelion Stompers. They are also active on the barn dance scene with various old-time bands. When not performing or teaching, Janssen operates a violin shop in his Iowa City home. His website is: theprairiefiddle.com.

Paul Roberts has been playing bluegrass music since 1978. He plays banjo, bass and guitar, and is a singer-songwriter. He has performed with two of Eastern Iowa's professional theaters, Iowa Theatre Artists Company and The Old Creamery Theatre. Roberts has been teaching students to play banjo, guitar, bass guitar, and the big bass fiddle for more than 16 years. He has been an instructor at Strawberry Jam Camp for 11 years and will be returning to teach again in July. He plays banjo with The Great Bluegrass Herons in addition to performing with The McPunk Brothers, Goin' Up Caney, Banjoy, and in his church band Sharon Praise. Both Roberts and Janssen performed multiple times this past summer at the South Amana Swap Meet and Farmers Market.

Cost for the one-day camp is $75. Pizza lunch and beverages will be provided. For more information and enrollment, please contact Meg Johnson: (319) 551-1264 or email: itac@southslope.net. Enrollment is limited.

FEATHERS IN THE WIND

I am in one of "those" moods. Everyone, it seems, makes their New Years Resolution, which they do not keep.

I promised myself I would clean up my computer and answer some e-mails, get thank you notes out and write birthday cards. So far nothing has been done because I have been reading books as if my life depended on it.

Frankly I wonder how Charlemagne can stand even being in my presence. The good thing is that I am not watching much television and thus not so much worrying about what kind of a mess the world is in.

I miss hearing from my friends and wish you would call, but I understand, you all have lives of your own. I have a rather unusual predicament. I can't find the phone book that I wrote all the cell phone numbers of my friends in, making it difficult for me to call them.

I would really love to call people like Mary Mac, Gaycia, Mike, Kari, Susan, Marion, etc., but have no reference material.

I can't even write them because, again, the addresses were in that phone book before house phone number, the same book I had the cell phone numbers in, and if someone doesn't have a land line then the address isn't in any other book.

If you haven't heard from me in a long time, please call me and re-connect, I really do miss hearing from and talking to people.

I know it's all my fault because I'm probably the one who misplaced the book, and the one who was sick and asked to be left alone.

Well, that was then, this is now. I truly miss you people, and want you to know how much I appreciate all your kindness, I treasure your cards, concern, casseroles, etc., but most of all I treasure you.

Please do call! If you want to come for a visit, beware, you may be handed a dust cloth.

Don't bring anything to eat. One of the "perks" I got from chemo is that my taste buds have gone on strike. Supposedly, they will start working again, in time, but until then nothing "tastes right", and that bothers me.

When I crave sweets, especially sweets, all I have to do is take a single bite, and I get very sick. I know some of you who have also suffered though this, so you can relate.

In the mean time, Charlemagne and Rose are having a wonderful time eating their way though thing that I can't, in front of me. Yesterday, even one of the cats hovered near some milk that I had! She got to see the inside of another room real quick.

So if you have an old phone book, please send it this way, or give me a few phone numbers. Thanks.
