Office Notice of Privacy Practices

Dr. Jean W. Gillon

This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you can access its information. Please review it carefully.

At The Office, we have always kept your health information secure and confidential. A new law requires us to continue maintaining your privacy, to give you this notice and to follow the terms of this notice. The law permits us to use or disclose your health information to those involved in your treatment. We may use or disclose your health information for payment of your services. For example, we may send a report of your progress to your insurance company. We may disclose your health information for our normal healthcare operations. For example, your information may be entered into our computer. We may share your medical information with our business associates, such as a billing service. We have a written contract with each business associate that requires them to protect your privacy. We may use your information to contact you. For example, we may send newsletters or other information. We may also want to call and remind you about your appointments. If you are not home, we may save this information on your answering machine or with the person who answers the telephone. In an emergency we may disclose your health information to a family member or another person responsible for your care. We may release some or all of your health information when required by law. If the practice is sold, your information will become property of the new owner. Except as described above, the practice will not use or disclose your health information without your prior written authorization. You may request in writing that we not use or disclose your health information describe above. We will let you know if we can fulfill your request. You have the right to know of any uses or disclosures we make with your health information beyond the above normal uses. As we will need to contact you from time to time, we will use whatever address or telephone number you prefer. You have the right to transfer copies of your health information to another practice. We will mail your files for you for a fee. You have the right to see and receive a copy of your health information. Give us written request regarding the information you want to see. If you also want a copy of your records, we may charge you a reasonable fee for the copies. You have the right to request an amendment or change to your health information. Give us our request to make changes in writing. If you wish to include a statement in your files, please give it to us in writing. We may or may not make the changes you request, but will be happy to include your statement in your files. If we agree to an amendment or change, we will not remove nor alter earlier documents, but will add new information. You have the right to receive a copy of this notice. You may file a complaint with the Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Ave. S.W. Room 509F, Washington, DC 20201. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint. However, before filing a complaint, or for more information or assistance regarding your health privacy, please contact our Privacy Officer, Dolores Centis (650)364-3828. This notice goes into effect as of April 14, 2003.

Acknowledgement: I received a copy of The Office Notice of Privacy Practices.
