

SSS Opens a Representative Office in Vancouver

05 August 2019 – Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (2L), Social Security System (SSS) President and CEO Aurora C. Ignacio (2R), Labor Attaché Margarita Victorino-Marquez (leftmost), and SSS Senior Vice-President and Head of International Operations Division Joy Villacorta (rightmost) lead the ribbon-cutting ceremony, marking the official opening of the SSS representative office in Vancouver. The new SSS office is located at the Philippine Overseas Labor Office, Suite 601, 999 Canada Place, Vancouver, British Columbia.

(Left photo) SSS President and CEO Aurora C. Ignacio addresses attendees at the Information Session conducted at the Consulate following the ribbon-cutting ceremony. (Right photo) SSS Senior Vice-President and Head of International Operations Division Joy Villacorta (2L) and SSS Representative in Toronto Roberto Roldan answer queries on SSS membership and benefits from community service providers and Filipino community leaders.

SSS President and CEO Aurora C. Ignacio (3R) presents tokens to Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (3L) and Labor Attaché Margarita Victorino-Marquez (center) during her courtesy call at the Consulate. Ms. Ignacio was accompanied by SSS Senior VP and Head of International Operations Division Joy Villacorta (2R) and SSS Representative in Toronto Roberto Roldan (2L). Also in the photo are Consul Arlene T. Magno (rightmost) and Welfare Officer Lilia De Guzman (leftmost).