Prayers of the Faithful

For our Church throughout the world; as we adapt to new realities of gathering as faith communities. We pray:

For governments, health authorities, and all who are responsible for decision making during this pandemic. We pray:

For medical staff, nursing home workers, and for all who risk their lives to care for the sick and the aged. We pray:

For victims of domestic or racial violence throughout our world. We pray:

For those in our world living without access to clean water or nourishing food. We pray:

For our fragile planet; and for those who are dedicated to protecting the earth. We pray:

For all who are who are suffering in mind, body, or spirit; for those who have died, and for all who mourn the loss of a loved one. We pray:

*Heartfelt Sympathy is extended to the Family of
Marie Antoinette O'Keefe*

May she rest forever in the Loving embrace of God

Thank you to all our volunteers!! Our church must be disinfected following every liturgy; there must be a person checking people in and having them answer the Covid-19 questions; there also needs to be someone just inside the door supplying all in attendance with hand sanitizer; and finally, there must be volunteers inside the church escorting people to their seats in a manner that respects social distancing. If you would like to help with any of these new ministries, please contact the parish office at 857-4223.

thank you

We want to take this opportunity to thank those who have been able to 'find a way' to get their offerings into the church. Your financial support is crucial to the functioning of our churches and we are ever so grateful.

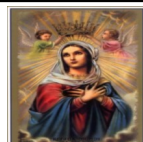

You can mail in your envelope or drop it off in the mail slot in the front door of the rectory which faces Dominion Street. If you would like to consider changing to pre-authorized payments, please call the office at 857-4223 to arrange this. Thank you for your continued generosity !!

Exploring our Faith

The Mystery of Faith

James Cameron's movie, "Aliens" is a good metaphor for many of the world's great religions. Near the beginning of the movie when the astronauts go into a cave to find the alien being their ship's instruments had indicated while they were in orbit, they cannot find it. We, the audience watching the movie, know they cannot see the monster because they are inside of it. We cannot see our own Faith objectively because we are "inside" of it. At least, we are inside of a community of the Faithful.

In our modern interconnected society, we experience the presence of many firmly believed and different beliefs. Under the flag of "Freedom of Religion" we try to respect the beliefs of others while maintaining our own form belief in the truth of our own religion. We see others from the "outside" while they see us from the outside.

The truth of faith is proclaimed by someone who as an active participant is a witness; who asks, "Do you see what I see?" For example, phrases repeated over and over again in the Book of Revelation, or Apocalypse are, "I saw"... "I heard..." "I know...and "witness". In that last book of the Bible, which is a guide for our interpretation of Scriptures, what is seen are visions, stories and analogies: in brief, "metaphor" which the Greek root implies "ferries us across" from our visible world to the Invisible. So Jesus spoke in parables "because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear."(Matthew 13:13) and quoting Psalm 78:2, "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world." (Matthew 13:34-35) For those within the Faith, a parable reveals. For those outside, it is just a myth.

Our Faith is our participation in the community of the Faithful. The Sacraments structure that community. We are initiated into a new life by the rebirth of Baptism. We actively confirm our baptismal vows with the chrism that marks our foreheads and numbers us among the Faithful. We sustain one another with Holy Communion and are guided by Holy Orders.

While the Sacraments structure our Faith, Holy Scripture is one of its foundations: not just the writings Jesus studied but also those His followers gave us. In addition, Jesus gave us the parable about a house not built on sand but on rock. I imagine He smiled inside when He looked Simon in the eye and said, "You are my Rock." He said it in many different ways in many different contexts but it comes down to: If you love Jesus Christ you love one another. Period.

I haven't mentioned the Sacrament of Penance. I heard recently from a friend that one of AA's 12 Steps is to look inside at the resentments you feel toward people, perhaps even family who hurt you, maybe harmed you in the past. I was surprised by how close AA comes to repeating the prayer Jesus taught us. We ask not only to be forgiven but for the strength to forgive. In today's Epistle (btw "piste" is Greek for "faith") St. Paul rejoices in telling how various enemies have failed to separate him from the love of Christ. How else but by forgiving those who brought the hardships upon him?

Attending Mass
Please arrive 15 to 30 minutes prior to Mass to allow for check in and seating

Some restrictions have been eased as to numbers allowed to gather with continued awareness of social distancing. You must call the parish office at 857-4223 Monday to Friday to reserve your place at Mass. (Deadline to reserve for weekend Mass is Friday at 12:00noon). Please note: you must register for weekday Mass also.

To register for Mass at Our Lady of Mercy please call Odette at 531-0252 or Mike at 351-4263. We will continue the original weekday Mass schedule.

Please follow these guidelines:

In the parking lot, stay safely 6 feet apart.

At the church entrance, stop and allow the volunteer to check you in.

Inside the door, stop and you will be given hand-sanitizer (your hands will be 'squirted')

Inside the church, follow the volunteer to your assigned seat

During Mass, follow all arrows and markings on the floor, so we all stay safely 6 feet apart

During Mass, enjoy the Music Ministry, Hum along, but for now, no singing.

After Mass, respect the safety of keeping the 6 feet between you and your fellow parishioners while leaving the building and when out in the parking lot.

Changes at Mass

A volunteer will bring you to you pre-assigned seat(s)

There will be one Lector for all readings, the lector will be seated in Sanctuary

There will be no alter servers and no singing

We will wish each other the peace of Christ by nodding, smiling, bowing, waiving

We will be silent when receiving Holy Eucharist

Please know that before each Mass, every pew, railing, door handle and all bathrooms will be cleaned and sanitized

Please make sure you take all of your belongings with you when you leave

Dispensation from Mass During this pandemic, the dispensation of Sunday Mass is given to those who can not go, those fearful to go, and those advised not to go, to church. Rather, these faithful are invited to read the Word of God and to pray in their homes and to participate in the celebrations of the Mass via TV, radio and/or the Internet.

Those who are sick (fever, cough, etc), those over the age of 70 and those with medical or at-risk conditions are asked to assess their own risk and ultimately, to make their own decision.

Masks are not mandatory, but we encourage everyone to wear his or her own mask. When you are sitting in your pew, safely 6 feet away from others, you can certainly remove your mask, for your comfort.
