Internet Resources at www.eeoc.gov

- EEO laws, regulations and guidance; statistics, initiatives, Q&A sheets, fact sheets, publications, training conferences, news releases, informal discussion letters, etc.
- EEOC Publications: “EEO is the Law” poster and other EEOC and joint publications are available at no cost online and are available in alternative formats and in many languages other than English.
- New! Small Business Resource Center with fact sheets, FAQs, tips, short videos and more at www.eeoc.gov/employers/smallbusiness

No-Cost EEO Outreach & Education Programs

EEOC's outreach programs provide general information about the EEOC, its mission, the employment discrimination laws enforced by EEOC and the charge/complaint process. EEOC representatives are available on a limited basis, at no cost, to make presentations and distribute information in meetings, conferences and seminars with employee and employer groups, professional associations, students, non-profit entities, community organizations, business expos, job fairs, etc. Many EEOC offices have bilingual staff available to make presentations.

EEO Technical Assistance for Employer Representatives

Do you have questions about the laws enforced by EEOC or about compliance with those laws in specific workplace situations? Employer representatives, such as supervisors, managers, human resource professionals and small business owners may contact the Outreach and Education Coordinator for their area. (Note: EEOC staff does not provide legal advice.)

Fee-Based EEO Training

Courses & Seminars

The EEOC Training Institute provides a wide variety of training to assist employers in educating their managers and employees on the laws enforced by EEOC and how to prevent and correct discrimination in the workplace. Visit the “EEOC Training Institute” web link at www.eetraining.eeoc.gov to learn more about the courses, seminars and products developed by the experts.

Tailored Onsite Training

The EEOC also offers in-depth, onsite training on a variety of EEO topics, tailored to employers’ needs, for a fee. This training is available to private employers and state, local and federal government personnel through the EEOC Training Institute. Our most requested on-site training topics include:

- Overview of Federal EEO Laws (in-depth overview of federal EEO laws)
- ABCs of EEO & Best Practices for Supervisors and Managers (from hire to fire)
- Workplace Harassment (sexual harassment and non-sexual forms)
- Americans with Disabilities Act & Reasonable Accommodations
- EEO Issues Related to Race, Color & National Origin
- Fair Hiring
- Promoting a Respectful Workplace Through Diversity & EEO Awareness
- Other EEO topics requested by customer
