BIRDS OF PREY

Live Bird Demonstration

Thursday, February 21, 2019
10:00am
Visitor Center

Join Marla Isaac and the Friends of Borderland inside the visitor center to see live hawks, owls and even a vulture on Thursday, February 21, 2019 at 10:00am. Marla explains the adaptations that make raptors special, how they hunt and their places in the ecosystem. Take photos up close of these dramatic and awe-inspiring birds! This event is co-sponsored by the Friends of Borderland and the Department of Conservation and Recreation.

Children must be accompanied by an adult. Rain or shine. This is a popular program, we recommend arriving early.

Heavy blizzard like snow will cancel. In case of a Blizzard, we will hold this event on Friday, February 22 at 10:00am in the visitor center.
