

Wendell C. Scutt

1912 - 1965

Wendell C. Scutt, 52, living on Sand Point south of Caseville, died suddenly at his home Saturday.

Born February 15, 1912 in Gratiot county, he was a graduate of Western Michigan University.

For the past year he has been administrative accountant for the Pigeon Manufacturing Company. Before that time he was employed as controller for Jackson and Church Co. in Saginaw.

He was a member of Our Saviour Lutheran church in Saginaw and of Tecumseh Lodge 69, F&AM.

Surviving are his wife, Mildren; a son, Wendell A, and a daughter, Lana, both at home; a step-son, Ronald Lazarus, Saginaw; three grandchildren; three brothers, and one sister.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Our Saviour Lutheran church in Saginaw. Burial was at Woodlawn cemetery, Grand Rapids.