

ABOUT THE AUTHOR...

PAUL DUNFORD

Paul Dunford, is an avid volunteer of St. Joseph's Parish, Douro. He is presently enrolled in the Diaconate Program and is working toward his Theology Degree at St. Paul's University, Ottawa. Paul is the Charter Grand Knight of the Knight's of Columbus, St. Joseph's, Douro Council, #11486. Together with his wife Annette and their three children, the Dunfords live in Douro and are active members of St. Joseph's Parish.

Paul has been a serving member of the Ontario Provincial Police for 17 years and is a full-time instructor at the In-Service Training Unit, Orillia General Headquarters, where he teaches Firearms and Use of Force.

In his 'spare time', Paul researched, wrote and consolidated this book. With the remainder of his off-duty hours, Paul enjoys astronomy and refereeing old-timers' hockey.

The 150th Anniversary Committee and St. Joseph's Parish, extend their sincere thanks to Paul for all of his time and hard work in developing this book.
