Active Participation of the Faithful

Holy Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that full, conscious, and active participation (actuosa participatio) in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy, and to which the Christian people have a right and an obligation by reason of their Baptism.

It is desirable that all the faithful should be aware that to participate in the Eucharistic sacrifice is their chief duty and supreme dignity, and that not in an inert and negligent fashion, giving way to distractions and day-dreaming, but with such earnestness and concentration that they may be united as closely as possible with the High Priest, according to the Apostle, "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus" (Phil 2: 5). Together with him and through him let them make their oblation, and in union with him let them offer up themselves.

Active participation in the liturgy is built on a life of constant conversion, for a heart reconciled to God makes genuine participation possible. This inner disposition can be fostered by recollection and silence before the beginning of the liturgy, by fasting, and when necessary, by confession. Moreover, there can be no truly active participation in the sacred mysteries without an accompanying effort to participate actively in the life of the Church as a whole.
