

ROBERT V. KOHL

1917 - 1996

Robert V. Kohl, 79 of Holiday, Fla., and formerly of the Thumb Area, passed away Sunday, Nov. 17 at home under hospice care.

He was born to Henry A. and Fannie Mae Kohl of Bay Port. He retired to Holiday, Fla. 17 years ago from Mt. Clemens, where he worked as a truck driver for several Detroit dairies.

He served in the U.S. Army 337th Infantry Regiment, Company E during World War II. He held the rank of Sergeant and was awarded the Bronze Star. He was life member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Surviving are his wife of 54 years, Emma; four sons, Dale of Gulf Breeze, Fla., Mark of Mt. Clemens, Keith of Walker, Mi., and Scott of Lapeer; two daughters, Sharon of Austin, Texas and Ginger of Eau Claire, Wf.; three brothers, Kenneth of Whitmore, Mi., and Henry Jr. and Colorado Springs, Co.; four sisters, Vera Deering of Cass City, Stella Arthur of Mission, Texas, Dorothy Roe of Pigeon, and Florence Haag of Flint; 13 grandchildren; and one great-granddaughter.

Cremation services have been held. A memorial service is planned for interment of ashes in Elkton, with a date to be announced.