

Hey Oh!

“So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most”
(Hebrews 4:16).

The last ten days have been extremely difficult on almost every level. And yesterday, well....yesterday took things to a whole new level before the day even really began. Not only was it a long day- but it was a very restless night.

After a long, long night another day began. That usually happens right? A new day dawns... So tell me, if yesterday is gone why do we keep trying to walk in what happened there?

At 10:30AM, I was walking down a hallway at CBN Headquarters and suddenly an old school song starting playing in my head. It was a song we had sang many times at Bible school and one that always made me dance and leap with inner joy.

Honestly, the suddenness of this song filling my mind not only shocked me, but stopped me in my tracks. I stood frozen in the hallway as the impact of the words flooded my heart and soul. It was a defining moment by God calling for my undivided attention. And my undivided attention HE got!

I felt silly standing in the middle of the hallway not moving, so I continued to walk down the hallway, only the song got louder and louder in my head. I found myself giggling at volume of it, and found myself remembering a time when this song would always bring me to my feet dancing!

That’s when He spoke, “Receive my grace! Receive my mercy! Receive my grace! Receive my mercy! Receive it!!! For all of it belongs to you”

It’s a choice to accept it or not. It doesn’t fade over time, it’s heavenly power doesn’t diminish because your situation is intense. His Grace and His Mercy are accessible at all times, we only need to receive it.

His Grace and mercy has been provided for you through the redemptive work of Christ. He has always been the means by which the manifest presence of God flows into His created man. God is also rich in His mercy toward you (Ephesians 2:4).

You have access to God’s mercy and grace by faith. Romans 5:2, “By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.”

Today - He wants you to receive His mercy and grace into your life. Today- He wants fill you with His mercy and grace. He wants you to take it all in. For you see, today- He wants to be exactly what you need when you need it.

I pray you listen to this song- it's only three minutes long and worth every moment of your time because I believe the Lord is going to do in you, what He did to me! There are several versions pick the one you like!!!!

Have a mercy grace filled weekend!!!

Mercy is falling is falling is falling
Mercy it falls like a sweet sweet rain
Mercy is falling is falling all over me

Hey Oh! I receive Your mercy.
Hey Oh! I receive Your grace.
Hey Oh! I will dance forevermore.
