October 9, 2019
Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 17:11-19

“Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine?”

On his way to Jerusalem, ten lepers approached Jesus. They apparently had heard of Jesus and asked him to have pity. Jesus does not perform any special ritual or say a special prayer, but simply tells them to go show themselves to the priest to confirm that they no longer had leprosy. One of them, a Samaritan, seeks out Jesus to thank him. Only one out of ten made the effort to express gratitude. Jesus tells him his faith had cured him. In the course of our day family, friends, neighbors, teachers, co-workers and strangers do things for us. How often do we recognize their help and say “Thank you”? One out of ten is probably a high percentage. What is our percentage? How can we increase it? First, recognize that our life and all we have is a gift from God and thank God every day for what he has given us. Then say “Thank you” to everyone who does an act of kindness, and spend a few minutes at the end of each day remembering each act. Did we thank them? How did our benefactor react? How did we feel? Keep a record.
