✠SAINTS/FEASTS OF THE WEEK✠

March 4-St. Casimir-A prince of Poland, St. Casimir and several of his brothers studied with the priest and historian John Dlugosz, whose deep piety and political expertise influenced Casimir in his upbringing. Although a prince, Casimir was a shining example of poverty and of sacrificial love for the poor and needy.

March 7-Sts. Perpetua and Felicity-Christian martyrs who lived during the early persecution of the Church in Africa, St. Perpetua was a young, well-educated, noblewoman and mother living in the city of Carthage in North Africa while St. Felicity was a pregnant slave girl who was imprisoned with St. Perpetua. Both were martyred for their faith.

March 8-St. John of God-A Portuguese-born soldier turned health-care worker in Spain, St. John of God lived through decades of sin and suffering before a profound conversion that led him to embrace poverty, humility and charity. His followers founded the Brothers Hospitallers of Saint John of God, a worldwide Catholic religious institute dedicated to the care of the poor, sick, and those suffering from mental disorders.

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus, you have chosen your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name. For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving. We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising. In times of weakness send them your Spirit and help them to praise your Heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By your same Holy Spirit put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted. And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, to the disciple whom you loved, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your spirit, to the glory of God the Father, Amen.

REGULATIONS ON FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

FASTING: To be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 years (inclusive). On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection (USCCB).

ABSTINENCE: Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all Fridays during Lent.

FASTING, ALMSGIVING AND PRAYER are the three traditional disciplines of Lent. The faithful and catechumens should undertake these practices seriously in a spirit of penance and of preparation for baptism or of renewal of baptism at Easter.

NOTE: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self denial that are suitable to their condition.

St. Katharine Drexel Parish March 23, 2019—9 am—1 pm

On Saturday, March 23rd, we are happy to announce that Peter Herbeck, Vice President of Renewal Ministries, will be at Saint Katharine Drexel Parish for a Lenten Reflection. The morning reflection will be from 9:00-1:00 and you won't want to miss it!

Peter oversees the work of lay mission teams throughout the world who work to equip Catholic lay people, bishops, priests, and religious to respond to Blessed Pope John Paul II's call for a new evangelization. He has traveled extensively in the U.S., Canada, Africa, and Eastern Europe for the past thirty years, assisting and training local churches in proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ and ministering through the exercise of spiritual gifts. Peter is the co-host of the weekly television show The Choices We Face, and the host of the daily radio show Fire on the Earth.

Encounter Lent

Our Catholic community in the United States does something amazing each Lent. We come together to practice prayer, fasting and almsgiving—and by doing so we help lift families and communities out of poverty and put them on a path toward resilience, prosperity and stability. That's the CRS Rice Bowl effect. We share the journey with members of our human family around the world, and commit our Lenten prayers, fasting and almsgiving to deepening our faith and serving those in need. Cada árbol frutos

3 de marzo de 2019 • Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¿Qué tienen en común estas dos cosas? En el Evangelio de Lucas de hoy, Jesús utiliza la imagen de un árbol frutal para explicar la importancia de hablar con cuidado. Si el árbol es saludable (que es bueno), esperamos disfrutar de un árbol delicioso, pero nadie cosecharía el fruto de un árbol que parezca enfermo. El fruto bueno es como las palabras buenas que indican la madurez y el crecimiento espiritual de una persona, una persona cuyo corazón y palabras están llenas de bondad. Seremos conocidos como buenos o malos por las cualidades, de misericordia y compasión, u orgullo y egoísmo, que vienen de nuestro corazón y entran al mundo por medio de nuestra boca.

Escuchamos un consejo similar del libro de Eclesiástico en la primera lectura. Así como el fruto indicará si el árbol del que viene está saludable, así también lo hacen nuestras palabras que indican lo que pensamos, cómo vemos al mundo y a nuestro prójimo. En efecto, las palabras son importantes.

canta acerca de los justos que serán como árboles floreciendo en la casa del Señor, produciendo fruto durante todas sus vidas. La justicia implica acción, misericordia, compasión, amor. En la segunda lectura, Pablo aconseja a los corintios a dedicarse al trabajo del Señor, que sus esfuerzos no serán en vano, porque la recompensa de comportarse con integridad es la victoria sobre el pecado y la muerte. La persona de justicia e integridad se comportan y hablan a causa de un nuevo corazón, hecho posible por el sacrificio de Jesús.

¿Las acciones hablan más fuerte que las palabras? Quizá entre este Evangelio y el de la semana pasada, cuando Jesús nos dijo amar a nuestros enemigos, Jesús nos está mostrando que ambos son vitales y aspectos esenciales del seguimiento de la vida del discipulado. Qué nuestro fruto siempre refleje la dulzura de vivir una buena vida.

Lecturas de hoy: Ecló 27:4-7; Sal 92 (91):2-3, 13-14, 15-16; 1 Cor 15:54-58; Lc 6:39-45

ACCIONES Y VICTORIA

¿Pero qué hay de nuestras acciones? Seguramente estas son signo de la bondad o lo opuesto, ¿cierto? El salmo de hoy

MARCH 3, 2019 EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles. — Luke 6:44

Cada árbol es conocido por su propia fruta. Porque las personas no recogen higos de espinos, ni recogen uvas de zarzas. - Lucas 6:44

THE INSIDE SHOWS

In this third Sunday of our reading from the Sermon on the Plain, Jesus speaks of the inner soul and its outer expression. He uses images as he teaches. He addresses all of us.

Jesus sees a plumb line connecting the soul with the soul's expression-words and actions. He uses exaggeration to drive home his point. We are urged to clear out the debris that blinds us. He knows that we have an uncanny ability to be blind to our own weaknesses, though they be as big as a board. He knows, too, how willingly we seem to ferret out others' smallest speck-like flaws.

And this, too, is for our general consumption; solid old goodness and solid old badness will show eventually. The old Latin saying, which echoes Jesus' images, is true: "What is bred in the bone will out in the flesh." By and by, the inside will show through.

Second Reading — We are given victory over death through Jesus. In the Lord our labor is not in vain (1 Corinthians 15:54-59).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Many Catholics who are not active in the Church will still seek out ashes this Wednesday. Likewise, many Jews who are not otherwise observant will follow the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, with great exactness, fasting and refraining from work and entertainment. People customarily dress in white as a symbol of purity and a reminder of God's promise that our sins will be made white as snow. While the overture to Ash Wednesday for Christians may be a festive Mardi Gras celebration, for Jews it is the New Year feast of Rosh Hashanah. Ten days before the Day of Atonement to God, people are expected to repair breaks in human life. These are days for offering forgiveness and seeking to repair harmed relationships with family, friends, or coworkers. Everyone is expected to seek out someone and "clear the air" by asking for understanding for any mean words or thoughtless deeds in the past year.

Perhaps the ashes you receive will be invested with deeper meaning if you follow a similar plan. This year, Rosh Hashanah will be September 29, and Yom Kippur October 8. A conversation with some Jewish friends or neighbors about their experience of a season of repentance may be a blessing on your Lent. — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

THE DIFFERENCE

The difference between perseverance and obstinacy is that one often comes from a strong will, and the other from a strong won't. — Henry Ward Beecher
