Communion of Saints

The month of November starts with All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day Celebrations. These celebrations remind us of a teaching of the Church: Communion of Saints. It is expressed in one of the four pillars of the Catholic Church: One (the other three are Holy, Catholic & Apostolic). The oneness of the Church explains the unity of the universal Church that includes the three states of the Church: Triumphant, Suffering, and Militant. The Triumphant Church includes the saints and holy people who are in Heaven, the Suffering Church includes the souls in Purgatory who are waiting to be reunited with God and the Militant Church includes the people here on earth who are fighting the battle of sin and temptation. The Communion of Saints tells us that the Triumphant Church prays and intercedes for the Suffering and Militant Churches. The Militant Church prays for the Suffering Church and prays with the Triumphant Church for themselves since they are journeying to Heaven. The interrelatedness of the three states of the Church tells us that we are one and we can be greatly helpful to one another in many ways.

CONFIRMATION LESSON 2

Sunday, November 12th @ 5:00-7:00pm
"My name is..."

This will be our second lesson in the process to get ready for Confirmation. We will be breaking open the importance of "names" and why they will need to pick out a Patron Saint. If you have a story about how you named your child please tell the sponsor so they can share it with your child.

St. Pius X Catholic Church Director of Music Ministry

St. Pius X Catholic Church in Owensboro, KY is seeking a
Full-Time Director of Music Ministry.

Requirements include a Bachelor's Degree in music or equivalent experience, excellent people skills and proficient computer knowledge. Candidate must be a practicing Catholic in good standing with the Roman Catholic Church. Outstanding written and oral communication skills. The position collaborates with the Pastor, Parish Staff and Worship Committee. Must understand the Roman Catholic Church regarding liturgical theology, praxis and liturgical music and the ability to successfully complete a criminal history and background check.

St. Pius Tenth Catholic Church is an equal opportunity employer with a range of benefits. All interested applicants may email a cover letter and resume to:
Fr. Babu K. Joseph, Pastor - frbabu@stpiustentparish.org

Thanksgiving Food Baskets

As Thanksgiving draws near we need to consider those less fortunate in our community. St. Pius X will once again be collecting names for Thanksgiving food baskets. If you know anyone in need of this ministry please contact the parish office.

With that in mind we need to prepare our Food Pantry. A listing of food items needed to prepare the baskets and replenish our pantry can be found on the tables in the vestibule. If you prefer to make a donation, that also will be greatly appreciated to purchase the meat, pies, bread, etc. not normally kept in our pantry. Thank you for your consideration to serve this ministry.

“It is not fitting that the servant should be applauded in his Master’s house.”- Pope St. Pius X

If you wish to express appreciation for the music ministers, please do NOT clap after the closing song. Instead, approach us after Mass has concluded and express your appreciation.

Music ministers perform a ministry, using our talents to bring the congregation into worship in the liturgy; we are not putting on a performance. Clapping for the music ministers takes the attention away from God.

We do not clap after a lector proclaims the Word of God, or after the priest gives his homily, after the ushers take up the collection, or after the Eucharistic ministers finish administering the Eucharist. To do so would be an interruption to the Liturgy and completely inappropriate. Clapping after the music ministers have completed their service in the Mass is the same.

Please do not clap after the closing song.

Thank you,
-A Member of the Music Ministry

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Saint Martin of Tours | November 11

Saint Martin of Tours was born a pagan in what is now Hungary around 316, but he was raised in Italy where his father, a tribune, was posted. At 15 he was compelled to serve in the Roman military, though he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. He was baptized at 18. Only two years after his baptism, he was released from the military, he had refused his battle pay and to fight saying he was a soldier for Christ. He is the first recognized conscientious objector.

After his release from the military, he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers. He worked diligently against the Arian heresy, which denies the divinity of Jesus Christ, and established a community of hermits near Poitiers in 361, the first French monastery.

In 371 he reluctantly became bishop of Tour. Nearby, he founded a second monastery, Marmoutier, because he preferred the life of a monk he retreated often. In 384 there was a popular heresy infecting the Church in Spain, led by the bishop Priscillian and his followers. The emperor Magnus Maximus became involved, ordering the execution of the heretics. Saint Martin opposed the executions and protested the emperor's involvement in Church matters. Unfortunately, the Priscillians were executed anyway. Saint Martin died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul in 397. He is notably one of the first saints who was not martyred. He is the patron saint of France.

Safe Environment:

The safety of our children is the responsibility of every Christian. Anyone aware of the abuse of a person under the age of eighteen is required by law to report this to the proper state authorities (270) 685-8442; local law enforcement (270) 687-8888; or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-597- 2331). To report abuse to the diocese, current or past, by anyone acting in the name of the Church (paid or volunteer), call Scott Ingram, Pastoral Assistance Coordinator (English) on the confidential phone line: 270-852-8380, or Susan Montalvo-Gesser/Miguel Quintanilla, Pastoral Assistance Coordinators (Spanish): 270-880-8360. The Diocese of Owensboro's sexual abuse policy is available at this parish in the parish office, and also on the diocesan website (<https://owensborodiocese.org/safe>).
