Loran Thomas was born Nov. 22, 1955 in St. Cloud to James and Pauline (Kammermeier) Hall. He married Bonnie Jones Aug. 25, 1978, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Sauk Rapids. The hallmark of Loran's life was his devotion to his family, his faith and his community. Loran was present wherever he went, often quiet yet exhibiting an inner strength that could always be relied upon. Firm in his convictions, he treated all he encountered with deep respect. He lived his Catholic faith with dignity and honor. He will be sorely missed by his family, his friends and the community he served so well.

Loran and his brothers John and Dan, were the fourth generation owners and operators of the downtown landmark business, Mathew Hall Lumber Company, where he served as president. His undying commitment to his community was evidenced by his active membership and participation with St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church; the Knights of Columbus; the Central MN Community Foundation; Community Giving; College of St. Benedict, Board of Directors; President of the Lumbermen's Merchandising Corp.; Central MN Development Corp.; and President of St. Cloud Opportunities.

Loran was a graduate of Cathedral High School, attended St. John's University, and graduated from St. Cloud Technical and Community College.

Survivors include his wife, Bonnie, to whom he was devoted; his children and grandchildren of whom he was incredibly proud: David and D'vorah Hall and their children Asher and Zephaniah of Hudson, Wis.; Angela and Ryan Schultz and their soon-to-be-born son of St. Louis Park; Lauren Josephine and William Wittrock and their children Hazel, Herbert and August of St. Joseph; Lt. Samuel and Lt. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Cathedral High School and Birthline.
