

Williams, Gayleen

Gayleen (Lindquist) Williams, 70, of Ubly, passed away on Thursday, April 22, 2004, at the Sanilac Medical Care Facility in Sandusky surrounded by her family. She was born on May 17, 1933 in Exeter, Missouri, daughter of the late Virgil and Amblin (Sanders) Williams. She married August Lindquist on February 25, 1955 in Hazel Park. She had been employed by the Chrysler Corporation in Detroit and as a hospital aide, as well as bookkeeper at the Farmer's Elevator and Minden City Oil and Gas. She started a girls's softball league in Ubly in the 1970s and was a cadet leader with the Girl Scouts and Brownies. She enjoyed crafts, gardening and was an accomplished seamstress. She is survived by one son, Dan Lindquist and his wife, Connie, of Ubly; three daughters, Tracey Foster and her husband, Tony, of Ubly, Connie McCoy, of Minden City, Kelli Dreger and her husband, Robert, of Ubly, grandchildren, Jamie, Jodi, Jessica, Jenna and Jacki McCoy, Kyle and Nick Lindquist, Jacob Booms, Kaitlyn, Rebekka and Ethan Foster; six great grandchildren; one brother, Leo Williams and his wife, Deanna; two sisters, Ruth Cunningham, Barb Daniels and her husband, Mel; several nieces and nephews, great nieces and great nephews. She was preceded in death by an infant brother and sister. Private services and interment took place at Argyle Township Cemetery. Officiating was Rev. Jerry Sutton, pastor of the Bad Axe Free Methodist Church. Memorials may be offered to the Alzheimers Association. Arrangements were handled by the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe.