CAMP SCHEDULE (9AM-5PM each day)

Friday September 22nd- BARN HUNT DAY- for all levels of BH dogs

Seminar Giver: Eva Raczka and Karen Cummings

Morning Session 9AM-Noon: Key Concepts in Barn Hunt

We will be discussing and practicing hard hides, discrimination challenges, distance handling and tunnels (elevated and other). This grab-bag of seminar topics will cover lots of different key concept focuses for handlers and dog. We will discuss Crazy 8s class differences as well.

Afternoon Session 1PM-5PM: Handler Skills and Strategy

Humans have a huge effect on their dogs and Barn Hunt is no different! Learn how pressure, talking, rewards systems and YOUR mental state effect your dog. The LIFTT (Location, Intensity, Frequency, Type, Timing) rewards system will be discussed in length and put into practice!

Saturday September 23rd- NOSEWORK DAY- for experienced and competing NW dogs

Seminar Giver: Julie Symons

Morning Session 9AM-Noon: Key Concepts in Nosework

A revisit to some key concepts in Nosework including...hide placement, the art of running known hides, creating confidence and building motivation during the search, and value of aborting a search that is going badly. We will also discuss some NACSW rule changes, the new AKC program (including buried hides!), and similarities and differences between all the venues.

Afternoon Session 1PM-5PM: Handler Skills and Strategy

The human half is 50% of the team! This seminar will work on honing your handling to be the best partner for your scenting dog! Topics included: Consistent handler mechanics, reading your dog's change of behavior before, at and after finding source, and how to cover a room for single and multiple hides. Planning search strategy will be discussed at length.

Sunday September 24th- TRACKING DAY-for all levels of tracking dogs

Seminar Givers: Kate and Deb Eldredge

Morning Session 9AM-Noon: Key Concepts in Tracking

Attention tracklayers! This key concepts seminar will discuss tracklaying methodology including transitions from different textures to ensure the track you lay is the track your dog can learn from!

Afternoon Session 1PM-5PM: Handling Tracking

This seminar exposes you to line handling, how to handle a corner, how to handle a stopped dog or searching dog. We will also discuss and practice how to reward a dog on articles to build drive for the article and indication. Leash handling through trees, scrub and more will be discussed and practiced!

Our Barn Hunt Seminar Instructor:

Eva has been involved in dog sports since 8 years of age. She has trained and titled dogs in Obedience, Rally, Agility, Herding, Retriever Hunt Tests and more and utilizes her diverse training in teaching barn hunt and developing drills to proof and develop teams. Barn Hunt is her passion and she has introduced over 800 dogs and their owners to Barn Hunt through seminars, classes, lessons and more. Eva has won high scoring awards at every class level of Barn Hunt as well as being an A level Barn Hunt Judge and BHA judge mentor. Eva and her Belgian Tervuren "Pi" (in addition to being the first RATCH X7 Terv) were Gold Medalists in Versatility and Bronze Medalists in Games at the 2015 BHA National earning the coveted Grand National Champion status.

Our Nosework Seminar Instructor:

Julie Symons has been involved in dog sports for over 20 years and trained the first CH OTCH MACH Belgian Tervuren. Her current Belgian Tervuren Savvy is also a breed and agility champion, having earned their UD and TDX over the last few years. Scent sports have become a passion for this team, earning their NW3 last year and recently approved as an AKC Scent Work judge. Julie's up and coming partner is her young boy Drac, a Belgian Malinois. They have started training in Nosework, Tracking, Agility, Obedience and Conformation. After learning about Nosework in 2012, they have been actively training, competing and introducing this fun and exciting sport through the online Fenzi Dog Sports Academy and in her local upstate NY area. Julie brings lots of experience from being a versatile handler and trainer in many dog competition sports.

Our Tracking Seminar Instructors:

Deb started in competitive dog training at vet school in Ithaca and hasn't stopped yet. She has competed successfully in obedience, conformation, agility, tracking, herding, barn hunt, lure coursing, freestyle, rally and is starting in nosework. Her dogs have been nationally ranked in agility and herding, as well as two dogs earning the coveted Champion Tracker title – AKC's most elite championship. Deb has put tracking titles on dogs of 4 breeds from 3 groups.

Her daughter Kate has been involved with dogs from the start – also competing successfully in obedience, conformation, agility, tracking, herding, lure coursing, freestyle and rally. Kate has put tracking titles on dogs of 3 breeds, including the elite Champion Tracker on her Pembroke Welsh Corgi. Deb and Kate have titled dogs in AKC, CKC and ASCA in tracking and attended numerous camps and workshops with national trainers. They look forward to sharing their love of this instinctual canine sport with others.
