

2014 LEE ALLEN

Distinguished
Speaker

Owner
Diversified Business Network

Mr. Allen is sole owner of Diversified Business Network in which he serves as an Employee Representative for civil rights complaints and Business Consultant to businesses and minority serving institutions. In this capacity, he successfully performs organizational analysis, EEO investigations, job classifications, training, and motivational speaking. Mr. Allen also serves as a Human Resources Lead for Wildland fires and disaster teams for national emergencies.

Mr. Allen retired from the federal government after 37 years of successful employment at the District, Regional and Headquarters level. Mr. Allen's expertise is concentrated in Human Resources Management, Multi-Cultural and Workforce Diversity, Conflict Management and Business services with an emphasis on women and minority-owned and small and disadvantaged business programs. Mr. Allen has worked in various agencies with diverse missions. This experience has allowed him to develop and implement outreach programs for non-traditional students and applicants where he managed a national recruitment and retention program. Mr. Allen received numerous awards and commendations for his service including the Leadership Award with Department of Interior for youth programs.

Mr. Allen's community service includes serving on boards and committees for Colorado Sickle Cell Association, Credit Union of Denver, MSIRP Consortium, and support for various foundations and organizations that focus on students who are from under-represented communities.

Mr. Allen is a native of New Orleans, La. and was educated at Hutchinson Jr. College, Hutchinson, Kansas and Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. where he received his undergraduate and graduate degrees.

Mr. Allen is married to a graduate of Xavier University, New Orleans, LA and is the proud father of two daughters and two grandsons whom all live in the Denver, Colorado Metro area.

