

DURHAM CIVITAN CLUB

May 5, 2016

April 28, 2016

Marlene called the meeting to order
Bill Oakley rendered the Blessing
Worth led the Pledge

Concerns: None - a good week for Civitans. We were happy to see Bill Bowles and Dallas Lowdermilk with us today.

Guests: We had one guest, Carolyn, Skip's wife.

Birthdays: None

Our next meeting is Thursday, May 12 and will be our Law Enforcement Awards meeting. Our speaker will be Deputy Brad Kirby with the "bomb" dog.

We have five members going to the NCDE Spring Meeting Saturday, April 30 at Boys & Girls Home.

Special Olympics Luncheon with Area IV is Saturday, June 4. If you are interested in helping and did not sign up, please let Marlene know.

Our Murdock Center outing will be Wednesday, June 1st this year. Please let Allison know if you are interested in helping.

Our Norman J. Whitaker Memorial Golf Tournament is Monday, May 9. We need teams and sponsors. Please let Marlene know if you want to sponsor or have a team.

Scholarship applications are due by our first meeting in May. The recipient must be a child, grandchild, step child or step grandchild of a current member of Durham Civitan. We will present the Scholarships at our first meeting in June.

The club will once again this year cook breakfast for the men's Durham Rescue Mission. It will be Saturday, August 13.

---------------	--------------	-----------

Marlene asked for nomination from the floor, there were none. The slate of officers will be presented again at the next meeting and voting will take place the last meeting in May.

Door Prizes: Worth Hill, Yvonne Ellis, Dallas Lowdermilk and Jan Howard

Queen of Hearts: $173 - Harold Burch - he did not win.

Mike Williams introduced our speaker, Ryan LaDuke with CIT. Ryan explained to us a little about crisis intervention. It can be for several situations but basically they are trying to help people. They are often called if someone is at risk of harming themselves. It was a very interesting talk and many of our members had questions. Mike and Sheriff Hill joined in on the discussion and help clarify things.

Our next meeting is Thursday, May 12 - this is our Law Enforcement Awards meeting. Our speaker will be Deputy Brad Kirby. Hope to see you there.

Bring a friend - they may join!
