

4th Kyle Creed Banjo Show

Kyle Creed (1912-1982), was born and raised in the Beulah section of north-west Surry County, NC. He was noted as one of the world's finest and best clawhammer banjo players and was also a fine fiddler in the Round Peak style. Kyle was also a famous banjo maker and his banjos are found all over the world. He and his bandmates founded the famous old-time band, The Camp Creek Boys, who played at national events and won numerous fiddlers' conventions. On this day, Kyle will be celebrated and remembered by family & friends in the telling of stories about him in all facets of his life. Come and join us, neighbor!

When: Saturday, September 15, 2018

Time: 10am-4pm

Where: Chestnut Creek School of the Arts
100 North Main Street, Galax, VA 24333

If you own or would like to display your Kyle Creed banjo please bring it along and Kevin Fore will document your banjo for the Kyle Creed Banjo database. It is unknown exactly how many banjos Kyle built and he is trying to get an approximate count. Admission is free, so come have a good time and see the Kyle Creed Banjos! Also be sure to check out the Fall into Art Festival and RexFest this same weekend!
