Introduction

Welcome to Doggone Rite Dog Grooming Academy. We would like to invite you to join us in the wonderful world of dog grooming. Our Academy offers hands-on training from three qualified instructors and periodic unit testing to check for comprehension. Graduation from the Academy will prepare you for an exciting career in the rapidly growing field of dog grooming. There is a great demand for dog groomers all over the country, especially in large cities. Salaries range from $15,000 to $50,000 per year.

Philosophy

Doggone Rite Dog Grooming Academy is here to thoroughly train our students using seminars, textbooks, a manual, over 100 years of experience from our instructors combined, and hand-on experience so our student will be able to experience and be prepared for the real world of being a Professional Dog Groomer.

Location

Doggone Rite Dog Grooming Academy is located at 3537 W. Columbus Ave, Chicago in Doggone Rite Dog Grooming Salon. The phone number is 773-582-0905. Hours of operation are Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 10am-9pm.

Admission Policy

An applicant for admission must be at least 17 years of age and have a high school diploma or GED Certificate. If the applicant is under 18 years of age, a parent or guardian must sign the application. Applicants must be able to read and understand course materials, be in sound physical and mental condition to operate grooming equipment, and have the patience to cope with a variety of canines and felines. Applicants must also present evidence of a current tetanus booster. There is a $100 application fee. All applicants will be interviewed by the director before being approved for admission.

Career Opportunities

The pet styling industry is in constant need of well trained, qualified professionals. For those who enjoy working with animals, many opportunities are available for a rewarding career as a pet stylist or shop owner. Doggone Rite Dog Grooming Academy prepares students for employment as a Professional Groomer in animal hospitals, kennels, pet shops or grooming shops. There is also unlimited room for growth in this field, as a well-trained dog groomer will be able to open their own shop, if so desired.

Seminars

A variety of seminars pertaining to the grooming profession will be held throughout the course. ALL SEMINARS ARE MANDATORY.

Tuition

The total tuition for the Professional Groomer course is $5380 (includes $880 of books and supplies and a $100 registration fee).

Placement Assistance

Job placement assistance is not offered at Doggone Rite Dog Grooming Academy, but the school does receive many calls and letters regarding both job opportunities and businesses which are for sale. All information is available to current and past students. It is the student's responsibility to further the inquiry and set up an interview.

Transcripts

To obtain a copy of transcripts and diploma, students may present a written request free of charge.

Criteria for Issuance of diplomas

90 – 100	- Diploma
75 - 89	-Certificate

School Policies

No smoking is allowed. Students are required to maintain a neat appearance while attending the Academy. One smock will be provided by the Academy and students will be responsible for keeping it clean and in good condition. Khaki slacks or jeans in good condition are required. No shorts are allowed. Shoes must be closed toe.

Absence, Tardiness and Rules of Conduct

The following are deemed just cause for dismissal from the Academy:

1. Excessive Absence/Tardiness
2. Conduct endangering the health/welfare of humans or animals
3. Use of drugs or alcohol during school hours
4. If a student's average falls below 75%, they will be placed on a two week probationary period. If the student is unable to bring their grade average above 75% during that time, they will be terminated from the Academy.

Curricula

Doggone Rite Dog Grooming Academy offers one course of instruction: Professional Groomer. Our student/instructor ratio in the program is 3:1. Each student will complete 19 written tests, two reports, three test dogs (hands-on evaluations), and a series of seminars which will equal 70% of their final grade. The final written exam is worth 30% of the final grade. All students in the course will also be certified in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation for Animals (CPR) by an outside, licensed veterinarian. The classes involved in the course are listed below. All course work is in-residence.

Professional Groomer

This course concentrates on all levels of grooming, with an emphasis on the finished appearance of a pet. Scissor techniques in thinning, layer cutting, and line cutting are skills needed to make students sculptors in the art of grooming. The school takes pride in assisting in the creation of professionals who can provide fine creative grooming for mixed breeds, and have an understanding of breed standards as well.

Refund Policy

1. Schools shall, when a student gives written notice of cancellation, provide a refund in the amount of at least the following:

a. When notice of cancellation is given before midnight of the fifth business day after the date of enrollment but prior to the first day of class, all application-registration fees, tuition, and any other charges shall be refunded to the student;

b. When notice of cancellation is given after midnight of the fifth business day following acceptance but prior to the close of business on the student's first day of class attendance, the school may retain no more than the application-registration fee which may not exceed $150 or 50% of the cost of tuition, whichever is less;

c. When notice of cancellation is given after the student's completion of the first day of class attendance, but prior to the student's completion of 5% of the course of instruction, the school may retain the application-registration fee, an amount not to exceed 10% of the tuition and other instructional charges or $300, whichever is less, and, subject to the limitations of paragraph 12 of this Section, the cost of any books or materials which have been provided by the school.

d. When a student has completed in excess of 5% of the course of instruction the school may retain the application-registration fee but shall refund a part of the tuition and other instructional charges in accordance with whichever of the following applies:

(1) A school which is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency may use this policy. As used herein, a "nationally recognized accrediting agency" means an agency or association designated by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education pursuant to provisions of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (P.L. 89-329) and related regulations.

After 5% of the course of instruction, but within the first 4 weeks of classes the school shall refund at least 80% of the tuition;

During the first 25% of the course, the school shall refund at least 55% of the tuition;

During the second 25% of the course the school shall refund at least 30% of the tuition;

In cases of withdrawal after 50% of the course, the school may commit the student to the remaining obligation of tuition.

(2). All other schools regulated under this Section may retain the amount computed prorata by days in class plus 10% of tuition and other instructional charges up to completion of 60% of the course of instruction. When the student has completed in excess of 60% of the course of instruction, the school may retain the application/registration fee and the entire tuition and other charges.

(3) The refund policy for short courses up to 20 clock hours shall refund prorata up to 60% completion of the course.

(4) All schools that offer courses of Instruction taught by distance education methods shall make refunds to students who cancel their instruction in the following manner:

(A) Students who enroll in a distance education course of instruction shall have 5 business days from the date of their initial acceptance to cancel the enrollment and receive a complete refund of moneys paid to the school.

(B) Thereafter, the school shall retain a prorata amount based on the percentage of lessons completed, up to 60% of the course of instruction, plus 10% of the total tuition and other instructional charges.

(C) If more than 20% of the lessons in the course of instruction are completed within the 5-business-day cooling off period, the distance education refund policy stated above applies from the beginning of the first lesson completed.

(D) Refunds shall be based on the last lesson completed.

2. A student, who on personal initiative and without solicitations enrolls, starts, and completes a course of instruction before midnight of the fifth business day after the enrollment agreement is signed, is not subject to the cancellation provisions of this Section.

3. Applicants not accepted by the school shall receive a refund of all tuition and fees paid within 30 calendar days after the determination of non-acceptance is made.

4. Application-registration fees shall be chargeable at initial enrollment and shall not exceed $150 or 50% of the cost of tuition, whichever is less.

5. Deposits or down payments shall become part of the tuition.

6. The school shall mail a written acknowledgement of a student's cancellation or written withdrawal to the student within 15 calendar days of the postmark date of notification. Such written acknowledgement is not necessary if a refund has been mailed to the student within the 15 calendar days.

7. (Blank).

8. All student refunds shall be made by the school within 30 calendar days from the date of receipt of the student's cancellation.

9. A student may give notice of cancellation to the school in writing. The unexplained absence of a student from a school for more than 15 school days shall constitute constructive notice of cancellation to the school. For purposes of cancellation the date shall be the last day of attendance.

10. A school may make refunds which exceed those prescribed in this Section. If the school has a refund policy that returns more money to a student than those policies prescribed in this Section, that refund policy must be filed with the Superintendent.

11. A school shall refund all monies paid to it in any of the following circumstances:

a. the school did not provide the prospective student with a copy of the student's valid enrollment agreement and a current catalog or bulletin;

b. the school cancels or discontinues the course of instruction in which the student has enrolled;

c. the school fails to conduct classes on days or times scheduled, detrimentally affecting the student.

12. A school must refund any book and materials fees when: (a) the book and materials are returned to the school unmarked; and (b) the student has provided the school with a notice of cancellation.
