Welcome to the Second Anniversary Dinner of CACAGNY, the Greater New York Chapter of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance!

Warm greetings to all, especially to our inspiring Honorees Norma Chu, David J. Louie, Sr., and Robin Mui. We are privileged to have them here tonight, inspiring us by how they've been leaders in our community and created meaningful deeds and institutions that affect the lives of so many. They are models for not just our smaller community, but for our nation. They bring breadth of experience that is global, reaching back to shared roots in China and linking our heritage forward to the shared future in America. It is what we aspire to, and we thank our Honorees for their vision, achievement and leadership in a wide range of areas.

In our second year, CACAGNY has continued to build bridges from our past into our united future. We have expanded our activities in education, from extending access of better education to all, to defending the rights of Chinese American students and all other students to be judged by their merit, rather than their race or ethnic origins. We thank our friends and members for their support. We thank our sponsors and advertisers who make our work possible.

Enjoy the evening, and let's look forward to another wonderful year!

Sincerely,

Wai Wah Chin
President

CACAGNY Distinguished Honoree

Norma Chu

Norma Chu, while attending to a busy career as an educator in New York City for 30 years, volunteered tirelessly for the larger community. In addition to molding young minds in preparation for future success, she has worked tirelessly to contribute to the greater community. Norma's love for people is reflected in her lifelong contribution to the Chinese-American community. As an early member of the Board of Chinese-American Planning Council (CPC), she helped design and manage social programs with a special focus to improve the lives of immigrants. Norma worked tirelessly to obtain public and private funds. Her chairmanships of CPC numerous gala events are legendary. The collective efforts raised millions of dollars. She remains an active member of the Cosmo Lions Club, Asian Women United, Pan Pacific Southeastern Asian Women's Association, and many other organizations that reach out to have a positive impact in our community. Her latest venture is helping to manage the Gospel Manor Church Food Pantry program. She is currently the honorary chair of UA3, a non-profit organization dedicated to early intervention with digital literacy and bridging the "digital divide", co-founded by her grandchildren.

Norma's benevolent efforts have been widely recognized. Among her numerous recognitions, she is a recipient of the Harriet Tubman Humanitarian Achievement Award and has served on the Commission on the Status of Women.

Norma was an educator in the NYC school system for 30 years before launching a second career in media. She has appeared in numerous independent features including: Law and Order, and The Blacklist. She appeared in many print and film commercials such as for Apple, Pfizer, Coach, and New York Lottery. Her most recent Apple Iphone X commercial was launched at the 2018 Winter Olympics.

Norma received her BA from McGill University in Montreal, Quebec, Canada and was the third Chinese woman in the history of the University to obtain a BA. She obtained her Master's Degree at Columbia University. She has three children and six grandchildren, all living in New York

David J. Louie, Sr.

David J. Louie, Sr. founded and grew the most successful Chinese American insurance business right from Chinatown in 1976, when Chinese Americans were rare in the insurance industry, to serve communities in New York and beyond. His firm David J. Louie Inc. continues to serve the community after decades as a tremendously admired establishment.

Aside from his professional and community contributions, David has also served our country, having enlisted (not drafted) in the U.S. Army in 1969 for 6 years – 3 years active army and 3 years reserves – including service in Vietnam in 1970, and is a well-respected member, leader and staunch supporter of the American Legion Kimlau Post 1291, the post with the greatest number of Chinese American vets, as well as being national American Legion Sergeant-at-Arms.

David's impact on Chinatown is broad, dedicated, and deep. He has been one of the founders of many groups now institutions in the community, as well as having served in leadership roles in many major older and newer organizations.

David has been a Board Member for numerous organizations, including: for over 15 years and Past President of the Lions Club of Chinatown (1981); for 15 years and Past Chairman of, the Chinatown Manpower Project; for over 15 years, Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association; for over 20 years and Past Chairman of, Chinese Chamber of Commerce of New York; for over 10 years, Chinatown Day Care Center; for over 10 years, New York Chinese School.

David was the Founding Member of several major establishments of the community, including the Chinatown Partnership Local Development Corporation and Chinatown Business Improvement District (Chinatown B.I.D), for which both he has Chaired, and the Chinese American Insurance Association.

David's focus on real, impactful contributions to individuals is seen in what he considers his most proud accomplishments which, aside from his family, are (1) the creation of the Chinatown Partnership and (2) creation of the Chinatown BID and (3) the initiation and passing of the Bicycle Helmet law requiring all business owners using bicycle delivery to provide helmets and safety vests to their employees. Prior to this law, bicycle delivery persons were being hit, permanently disabled and or killed by buses, taxis and trucks on the streets of NYC, with most of the delivery people being Chinese delivering food or Mexicans delivering food or supermarket grocery items, both in the lowest economic laboring levels. David's initiatives have clearly benefited the lives of many in every part of our community.

CACAGNY Distinguished Honoree

Robin Mui

Robin Mui, born in Hong Kong, came to the U.S. to pursue the American Dream with the Mui family in the early 70's, and has set his roots in New York with the passion to bring overseas Chinese closer together and to help them live better.

Robin joined Sing Tao Newspapers New York more than 35 years ago, worked his way up from Production Manager in the 80s, was promoted to the Chief Operating Officer in the year of 2002, and was appointed in 2004 Chief Executive Officer, which he serves as presently. He has also been Chief Executive Officer of Sing Tao Daily (USA) since 2016. Through his distinguished leadership, the media company leads the way in serving the Chinese immigrants, students and many more with prompt news and resources enriching their lives in the U.S East Coasts.

Beyond his distinguished professional contributions, Robin volunteered to serve as Auxiliary Police Officer in the New York Police Department for more than 20 years. He helped the Brooklyn Robbery Squad in solving a lot of cases in the early 90's when there were few Chinese speaking officers. He raised money through the Fraternal Orders of Police to sponsor NYPD personnel to China to open up the dialogue between both countries' police officials to solve international kidnapping cases. Eventually, that put an end to those kidnapping cases, when there had been as many as 20 cases annually in the early 90's.

With his well-built network with politicians, government agencies, media, corporate leaders, community entities and the people, Robin always heads out and actively takes parts in the community by pulling as many strings as possible, and carries out until many are benefited and assisted. Through his civic-mind, positive beliefs, and persistence, Robin has devotedly and enthusiastically pioneered and supported countless events and fundraisings to enrich the culture, the welfare and the well-being of the community, from facilitating dissolving conflicts in the community, to backing and organizing various arts, sports and cultural programs for the youth to the seniors, to the charitable works and fundraised for many non-profit organizations and hospitals. He has led programs to help re-establish Chinatown after September 11th, to fundraise for the disasters such as the Tsunamis on coastal areas throughout South Asia in 2004, the Sichuan Earthquake in 2008, the Haiti Earthquake in 2010. He pulled together the Little Italy neighborhood to join forces with the Chinatown community to present the Annual East Meets West Christmas Parade. He led fundraising efforts to help Victor Fong find justice and also worked behind the scene to help PO Peter Liang vindicated of murder charges. Robin's endless engagements with courage, wholehearted goodwill and determined character give inspiration to immeasurable others.

Robin's work has been recognized with numerous awards and proclamations. He is the President of the Chinese Journalists' Association of New York; the President of the Moy Shee Family Association for seventh terms for which he is currently the World President; he also serves on advisory committees for various community organizations and advocacies. Robin resides in New York City, and is the CEO of Sing Tao Daily Newspaper for the U.S.A. Eastern Editions, which oversees its publications for New York Tri-State, Boston, Washington D.C., Philadelphia and Chicago. He was promoted to CEO of the Sing Tao Daily (USA) two years ago.

Dear Friends:

It is a pleasure to send greetings to everyone gathered for the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's Second Anniversary Dinner celebration.

New York's greatest asset has always been its diversity, and the Chinese American community is an important, growing part of our rich cultural mosaic. I'm pleased to join in celebrating CACAGNY's important contributions to our State and acknowledge its tireless efforts in advocating for the Chinese American community.

Driven by principles of patriotism, civility, justice, equal opportunity, and commitment to family and culture, CACAGNY works to empower and enhance the future of Chinese Americans. I applaud the organization for providing an important network of support and resources to Chinese American New Yorkers looking to build brighter futures for themselves and their families.

I'm proud to pay recognition to tonight's honorees and scholarship recipients, and on behalf of all New Yorkers, extend best wishes to all for an enjoyable event and much continued success.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to join you in celebrating the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's annual gala.

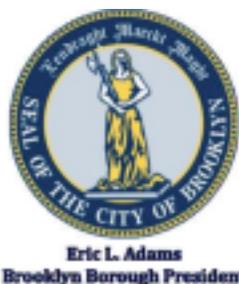

Since 1895, CACA has empowered Chinese Americans, defended civil rights, and promoted Chinese American culture and heritage. Your work is a great service to the Chinese American community in New York City—which in turn benefits our city as a whole.

On behalf of the Borough of Manhattan, I wish you success in the years to come.

New York, NY 10002-6702

Dear President Chin:

Brooklyn is the proud home of the fastest-growing Chinese community in New York City, and as Brooklyn's borough president, I am pleased to salute you, President Wai Wah Chin, and Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) — the oldest Chinese-American civil rights organization in the United States — for CACAGNY's time-honored tradition of advocating for the interests of Brooklyn's Chinese-American residents.

Chinese-Americans comprise more than 6.4 percent of the population of Brooklyn — the fourth largest city in the United States — and they number more than 163,000 living in some of our borough's most diverse and vibrant communities, such as Bensonhurst, Homecrest, Sheepshead Bay, and Sunset Park, the latter also known as "Brooklyn's Chinatown," where a historic, nine-roof Friendship Archway will be erected on Eighth Avenue between 60th and 61st streets. It will serve as a meaningful reminder of the great friendship that exists between our borough and our sister city, the Chaoyang District of Beijing.

Our borough's Chinese-American residents' academic and entrepreneurial excellence is a model for success, and their cultural riches add great texture to Brooklyn's special quality of life. I am honored to extend my warmest congratulations and greetings to you, the board members, staff, and supporters of CACAGNY as you gather on the occasion of your 2nd Anniversary Gala on December 1, 2018.

On behalf of all 2.6 million Brooklynites, I salute you, President Chin, for your leadership. I commend CACAGNY's service to our great borough and New York City. I congratulate tonight's honorees as they are celebrated for their ongoing commitment, both personally and professionally, to the Chinese-American community. Finally, I thank everyone for helping us move forward together as One Brooklyn.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to extend best wishes to all attending the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's Second Anniversary Dinner.

For years, the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) has been devoted to supporting Chinese communities in New York City. CACAGNY is committed to addressing issues important to Chinese New Yorkers. In addition, CACAGNY mobilizes its members on critical civil rights initiatives and public service projects. Tonight's celebration celebrates the achievements and contributions of CACAGNY's members. I am confident CACAGNY will continue to make a positive impact on our City for years to come.

Thank you to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York for bringing us together tonight to celebrate community and service. Please accept my best wishes for continued success.

New York NY 10002

Dear Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York:

I am delighted to extend my warmest greetings to all gathered at the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's Second Anniversary Dinner!

The Chinese American Citizens Alliance (CACA) was originally founded in 1895 in San Francisco by a collection of Asian-Americans of Chinese descent who were passionate about defending and advocating for the civil rights of Chinese Americans in the United States. Throughout its history, CACA has engaged in a multitude of efforts in fighting unfair legislation, promoting American citizenship and virtue, and preserving Chinese heritage and culture. After a thirty year absence from operating in New York, CACAGNY is now back one-hundred years after the chapter's original founding. The new membership is comprised of active community leaders who seek to empower and enhance the future of Chinese-Americans in the United States.

I am honored to congratulate the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York as it celebrates its first anniversary. I commend CACAGNY for their commitment to promoting Chinese-American interests based on the principles and values of fairness, equal opportunity, patriotism, civility, and a dedication to family and culture.

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful dinner and much continued success!

Sincerely,

CACAGNY Service Recognition Award

CACAGNY is grateful for the hard work of community members who toil, sometimes for years, on projects that affect the daily lives of their neighbors, without any thought of recognition. Whether fighting for better schools or access to them, protecting the Specialized High Schools, or protesting improper dumping of crime-ridden shelters on unequipped neighborhoods, they work tirelessly, bravely and with commitment for their community. We recognize with great appreciation CACAGNY members Vito LaBella and Linda Lam, as well as the Christa McAuliffe PTO, which includes CACAGNY members, for their great service to our communities. They join last year's recipients Phil Wong, Charles Vavruska, and Elmhurst United. Phil Wong and Charles Vavruska are recognized this year for their continuing exemplary service.

C.A.C.A. Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship

The Chinese American Citizens Alliance Community Involvement Fund will fund the second Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship in honor of the Chinese American policeman slain in December 2014 while protecting and serving as one of New York City's finest. C.A.C.A. members from as far away as California and Oregon, led by President Ed Gor from Texas, were moved by the death of Det. Wenjian Liu three years ago in New York. Det. Wenjian Liu was from Toishan (Taishan) of Guangdong, a place many Chinese Americans call ancestral home; nearly all the early Chinese immigrants to the U.S. came from that one county. Our President Gor, also of Toishan County, reached out to our C.A.C.A. members to honor Liu with a living memorial to make a real, lasting impact to improve the future of our communities. Our members responded immediately and contributed funds to establish a scholarship to be named in honor of Det. Wenjian Liu and to support other Chinese-Americans who hope to serve their community by police work. We are pleased to present our second Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarships of $1,000 each award to two New Yorkers who aspire to become police officers: current John Jay College sophomore Bida Chen and junior Kenny Liu. They join last year's recipients Harrison Yuan and Peng Zhang.

Dear Friends,

Congratulations to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance (C.A.C.A.) of Greater New York on your Second Annual Dinner Celebration on December 1, 2018.

The New York chapter of the C.A.C.A is once again an integral part of a national organization that has empowered and assisted Chinese Americans since 1895.

2018 marks the one hundred and second year since the original inception of the kindred C.A.C.A group in New York; a new and innovative group of active community leaders and advocates has taken on the responsibility in New York of fostering Chinese American interests as well as building upon the rich history. CACAGNY has worked diligently for the community for education, various forums on important issues and has supported the work of government.

I congratulate all of your many deserving honorees and look forward to continuing to work with the CACAGNY and your ongoing mission of fairness, equal opportunity, the principles of patriotism, civility, dedication to family and culture, with the highest ethical and moral standards.

Again, best wishes for a most successful Dinner.

Dear President Wai Wah Chin:

Congratulations to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance, formed in San Francisco in 1895, which has served for over 120 years, but a Greater New York chapter returned only two years ago after a 30-year hiatus. Since then, you have worked hard for the community in a variety of areas, including giving scholarships and holding forums on crime and safety, college admissions, films, and keep SHSAT test in place.

I especially want to congratulate you in that you will be AWARDING the second recipients of Detective Wenjian Liu Law Enforcement Scholarship.

I congratulate your President Wai Wah Chin and all your officers' great success as you back to New York the services for which your parent organization has been renowned.

I am sure that this will bring great benefits to all those with whom your New York Chapter comes into contact.

Very truly yours,

William Colton

Dear Friends:

Congratulations to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) on the occasion of your 2018 Annual Dinner Gala! I am delighted to have this opportunity to send my warmest greetings as you all gather for this year's celebration.

Since your chapter's re-charter two years ago, CACAGNY has made a positive difference with your varied programs in education, healthcare, and celebrating Chinese Americans' cultural heritage.

I would like to recognize all involved with the CACAGNY family for doing the meaningful work you do and improving our community with your civic engagement.

Again, congratulations on another wonderful year and best wishes for many more to come! Have a great evening!

Sincerely,

Nily Rozic

Greetings to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) Community!

On the occasion of its First Anniversary Dinner, we honor the work of CACAGNY formed in San Francisco in 1895, working toward empowering Chinese-Americans. The CACAGNY New York Chapter, having returned after a 30-year hiatus, continues to work hard for its community in awarding scholarships, and holding forums on crime safety, college admissions, and films.

The CACAGNY has the mission of fighting racial discrimination, defending civil rights, opposing anti-immigration movements and countering efforts to marginalize American Chinese culture and heritage. Congratulations to the recipients of this evening's recipients of the Det. Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship who emulate the values of the CACAGNY community.

Congratulations and best wishes for continued success to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) Community!

Sincerely,

REBECCA A. SEAWRIGHT

Dear Friends,

It is my great pleasure to greet attendees at the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York’s Second Anniversary Gala. Today’s event offers a special opportunity to celebrate an organization that is committed to making a difference for the Chinese American community in New York City.

Founded in 1895 in San Francisco, Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York is the oldest Asian American advocacy group in the country. Since returning from a 30-year hiatus, the organization has served as an anchor in our community, providing scholarships, screening films, and hosting forums on public safety, political engagement and civic empowerment.

Tonight, the Chinese American Citizens Alliance has created a space to recognize the everyday heroes in our community who champion the organization’s mission of public service, by awarding the second recipients of its Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship.

As the Council Member representing Lower Manhattan, it is a privilege to fight alongside such passionate individuals who tirelessly work to uplift our neighborhoods. Thank you for your contributions, and I send you my best wishes for continued success in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Margaret S. Chin

Dear Friends,

Congratulations to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) on hosting its Second Anniversary Dinner celebration. CACAGNY does remarkable work in empowering Chinese Americans and acting as advocates for Chinese-American interests. Over my year in office, I have seen firsthand the amazing work that your organization does. We have worked together on issues like protecting the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test (SHSAT), and fighting to keep Rikers Island open instead of building community jails throughout the city.

The Chinese American Citizens Alliance has served the community for over 120 years, and I am glad to see that two years ago Chinese-American leaders in New York decided to revive the chapter. Since then, CACAGNY worked vigorously in offering scholarships, holding forums on crime and safety, assisting students with the college admission process, defending the SHSAT, and lobbying elected officials for the greater good of the Chinese community. CACAGNY honors recipients with the Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship, a wonderful gesture memorializing a Chinese-American hero, a decorated NYPD officer who tragically passed away in 2014 while on duty with his partner. You are an incredible organization, and I am extremely proud to support you.

As a New York City Council Member, I will always advocate on behalf of the Chinese community. You have an ally in me; one that will have your back.

Congratulations to all the honorees, and the recipients of the Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement scholarship. Also, congratulations are in store for the celebration of CACAGNY's second ever anniversary dinner, may you continue to host them. Thank you for inviting me to your annual gala, and I wish it great success.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that I extend my warmest greetings and congratulations on the occasion of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's Second Anniversary Dinner celebration at the Golden Unicorn Restaurant.

After a 30-year hiatus, two years the alliance brought back to New York a chapter of the national Chinese American Citizens Alliance, which has served as a nationally known advocate for Chinese Americans since 1895.

On behalf of the New York City Council, I'd like to congratulate and commend the officers, staff and members of the New York Chapter of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance for their tireless work in providing needed services to our community. Congratulations also to the award recipients of the Det. Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful event.

Sincerely,

Peter Koo
