*All date are subject to change

When there is no class it will be listed on the newsletters, on our website, and on the calendar in the waiting room. Please refer to these when in doubt. If the date in question is not listed, then there is class. With winter coming, please keep in mind that if the Dansville Central School District cancels school or after school activities due to the weather, then dance is also canceled. An email will be sent to inform you of this and will be posted on the website home page. Please do not call or text the studio. Thank you.
