Events 2017-2018

Thankfully, The Orpheum survived Hurricane Irma without any damage. Our new façade and balcony wait for completion while we turn our attention toward interior renovations. We are raising funds to complete this exciting project and invite you to join us in reaching our goal.

As we look forward to this season's concerts, we gratefully anticipate your continued support through your contributions, attendance and volunteered time. Already, you have helped us reach well over 2000 audience members. Thank you for being at the heart of The Orpheum's success!
