A Note from Rick: Well we had our first real taste of winter last week. A couple inches of snow and ice on Monday night into Tuesday morning followed by colder temperatures. I guess we shouldn't complain as we've had a very mild winter so far. Markets on Tuesday were a little stronger. Slaughter cows lead the way at $2-$4 higher. The calf market was stronger as well. It's the time of year that there's several people looking for 4-H calves and that always seems to give a little boost to the market. Dairy cattle and feeders were steady with a limited test to the market. The hay market was steady as well with again a smaller run of hay (due to the weather). As we head into February, we're looking forward to the Horse pull and Stallion presentation on the 20th followed by the Driving Horse sale on the 27th. We're excited to open up the horse arena in 2021. See you at TLA!
