July 24th-28th: Oireachtas Camp in Savannah

If your goal is to reach the next level of Irish dance, then this is the camp for you! The Oireachtas camp in Savannah on July 24th - 28th will give campers access to guest instructors brought in to prepare dancers for the 2017 Oireachtas.

- * New Steps and moves in both soft and hard shoe
- * Ceili dances will be taught and teams will be assessed for the upcoming competitive season.
- * Flexibility, strength training, balance and technique routines will be given for at home practice
- * Fun team building games, confidence and poise on stage
- * Dancers will receive awards and participate in a showcase for the parents at the end of the week.

All Camps

Legacy's Dance Camp is certainly geared toward fun. However, different from weekly classes the dancers are seen for longer segments of time and for consecutive days. This is a rare opportunity for their growth for the upcoming year! Not to mention all the fun they have and memories that they make!

* Skills needed for the upcoming season!

* Themed camp days to motivate team spirit

* Awards ceremony for all levels

* End of the week performance for the parents

Legacy is registered with the governing body of Irish dance, An Coimisiun Le Rince Gaelacha in Dublin Ireland. The instructors, Abbey & Brent Wood are certified and fully insured. With over 40 years combined teaching experience their infectious energy will keep the campers on their toes!
