

Media Release
For Immediate Release
January 28th, 2015

There is a Warrior inside of every woman She is strong, determined, and powerful

New Woman's Only Obstacle Race benefitting Easter Seals Alberta and the Children's Hospital Aid Society

Calgary AB – On May 30th, 2015 a brand new Calgary event will be unveiled. Woman2Warrior Calgary is a non-timed run covering about 5km of trails and terrain. The course features obstacles to test strength, agility, balance, and sense of adventure. Women may enter as individuals or as part of a team, but each person must raise a minimum $300 to participate. There will be awards & prizes for the top overall fundraisers, top media fundraisers and best costumes.

Join Honorary Warriors 2010 Olympic Curling Silver Medalist Cheryl Bernard and Canadian Luge Olympian and World Cup Silver Medalist Alex Gough for this exciting event that promises fun, comradery, and entertainment.

The event will take place between 8:30 AM and 2:30 PM at SAIT in Calgary. Friends, family, work colleagues and interested spectators are welcome to take in the excitement and cheer the Warriors on!

Local sponsors include Production Canada, Spa Lady and Global TV.

By participating in Woman2Warrior Calgary you'll be helping kids with disabilities and special needs by supporting Easter Seals Alberta and Children's Hospital Aid Society.

For more information on this exciting event, please visit: www.calgary.woman2warrior.ca/ or contact:

Jamie Anderson
403-235-5662
jamie@easterseals.ab.ca

Murlyne Fong
403-978-3052
W2W.alberta@gmail.com

Catherine Todd
403-870-8750
W2W.alberta@gmail.com