FAQ

What types of events do you cater?

Everything! Corporate & private, rehearsal dinners, wedding receptions, reunions, graduations, luncheons—you name it, we'll cater it.

What size events do you cater?

We do everything from drop-offs for small parties to onsite catering for over 1,800 guests.

Do you offer catering in your restaurants?

Our Lakewood BBQ joint's banquet room is available for private dinners, business lunches, training seminars, showers, rehearsals, etc. In addition to our award-winning food, we offer Touch base with us and we will hook up. We LOVE hosting parties!

Why Hog Wild?

Because we deliver national award-winning authentic Southern BBQ and excellent service to you and your guests, every time. Every. Time.

Are disposables included?

Our disposables are 50 cents per person and include a sturdy Styrofoam plate, napkin and cutlery. Upgrades are available.

What if we want to use our own disposables?

Knock yourself out! However, FYI, we portion our food based on an industry standard sized 9-inch plate. So if you go out and buy 13-inch monsters, you are going to have a food shortage problem. Please consult w/ us before doing that. No one wants a food shortage problem. Particularly your guests.

Can I customize my menu?

Ab-so-lutely! We can create whatever combination of entrees and side dishes your heart desires. Don't see it on the menu? Just ask. We will accommodate.

What is an Event Production Fee?

Also known as a service charge, our Event Production fee pays for things like administration, consultations, planning, site visitations, equipment, insurance, etc. for onsite catering.

How do I keep my dropped off food hot?

We offer disposable chafing racks and sterno for purchase. Or you can use electric roasters or crock pots. We do not rent out our holding equipment.

Do you offer wedding tastings?

It depends on our availability. If it's during our busy season, the answer is most likely going to be 'no.' However, you are more than welcome to visit our restaurants in Warren, Pa. or Lakewood, NY to sample our wares. Save your receipt and we will knock it off your final bill if you sign a contract.

Do you require a deposit or a contract?

If you want to book us, we're gonna need some pesos up front and your John Hancock on a contract. Nothing personal. Just bidness.

Why is my meat pink??

Our barbecue is authentic, meaning we use low wood fires to roast our meats. The smoke reacts to the proteins and leaves a telltale pinkish-red ring on the outer layer, most noticeable in ribs and brisket. It also tends to turn chicken pink.

What will my food be delivered in?

Disposable aluminum serving pans.

Why should I hire waitstaff?

Someone has got to keep the food in the buffet line stocked, along keeping an eye on Uncle Eddie so he doesn't take five sandwiches, leaving Cousin Timmy with nothing to eat because he's at the end of the line. Trust us on this. It's not our first rodeo.
